Oregon State (37-19)

2009 Season In Review

37-19 Overall • 15-12 Pac-10 • Tied-Third Pac-10

The Season

Oregon State finished the 2009 season with a 37-19 overall record and 15-12 mark in Pacific-10 Conference play. The Beavers were 22-7 in non-conference games, including a 20-5 mark during the regular season.

Pac-10 Play

The Beavers started Pac-10 play 5-1 and then went 10-11 the rest of the way to finish it 15-12. The 15 victories is the most since OSU went 16-7 in 2006. It also marked Oregon State's first winning Pac-10 season since 2006.

Back To The Postseason

Oregon State made it to the Fort Worth Regional, ending a one-year absence from postseason play. The Beavers went 2-2 at the regional, defeating Texas A&M twice and losing to TCU twice. Texas A&M was ranked 18th and TCU 13th during the regional. The Beavers were ranked 25th.

Casey Gets To 500

With a 2-0 win over Oregon on May 19, head coach Pat Casey became the 19th coach in Pac-10 history to reach 500 wins with his school. He ended the year with five more victories, and is now 56 behind Ralph Coleman, who has the second-most at Oregon State with 561.

Speaking Of Rankings

The Beavers were ranked for nearly the entire season and posted a ranking as high as 14th in Baseball America's Top 25 on April 13. The Beavers were ranked in each of the five major polls for three straight weeks in April and a week in May after taking 2-of-3 from then-No. 3 Arizona State.

Keeping Opponents Down

Even though the Beavers played a tough schedule this season, the team's pitchers were able to keep opponents at bay. OSU limited opponents to two runs or less 14 times and the Beavers finished the season a perfect 14-0 when doing so. When limiting teams to five runs or less, meanwhile, Oregon State was 30-10.

No Big Blowouts Here

Oregon State played relatively close games all season, with just 18 contests decided by five or more runs. Of course, in that situation, the Beavers went 16-2. OSU lost just two games by four or more runs this season, with only one occurring during Pac-10 play.

At Home

Oregon State won 17 games at Goss Stadium this season, marking the fifth straight season in which the Beavers won double figures at home.

Call Him Sammie

Sam Gaviglio won 10 games for the Beavers this season, setting what is believed to be a school record for the most wins by a freshman. He went 10-1, winning his last seven decisions, including the opener of the Fort Worth Regional. Gaviglio's 2.73 ERA was the best amongst the team's starters during the season.

Sam's Awards

Sam Gaviglio was certainly rewarded for his stellar season. He was named to the All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention squad and earned Freshman All-America First-Team by Louisville Slugger, the NCBWA and Ping! Baseball.

Ortiz Does It Again

Ryan Ortiz managed to raise his average one point this season, to .352, while driving in 45 runs to go with five home runs. He was named the All-Pac-10 First Team for the second straight season. He also earned All-Academic Second Team honors after placing in honorable mention last year.

Newcomers - Offense

OSU had a host of newcomers join the club this season and they played valuable roles. Offensively, Jared Norris finished second on the team with a .331 batting average and contributed three home runs and 36 RBI. Adalberto Santos was third on the club with a .320 batting average and also finished with four home runs and 43 RBI. Stefan Romero led OSU with 51 RBI while batting .291.

Newcomers - Pitching

Outside of Sam Gaviglio, Tyler Waldron proved to be OSU's biggest addition, finishing the season with a 6-4 record, 4.15 ERA and 70 strikeouts in a team-leading 93 1/3 innings.

2009 Oregon State Notes

MLB Draft

Oregon State had six players drafted by Major League clubs after the season. Oregon State has now had at least one player selected in the last 17 years, which includes all 15 years under head coach Pat Casey. The last year not to see an OSU player selected was 1992. The Beavers have had at least one player selected in every year of the draft except 1992, 1985, 1979, 1978, 1976, 1973 and 1972. The Beavers have had multiple draft selections in each of the last nine seasons. Ryan Ortiz going in the sixth round gave Oregon State 22 players selected in the top nine rounds under head coach Pat Casey.

The players selected were:

- Ryan Ortiz, sixth round, Oakland
- Jorge Reyes, 17th round, San Diego
- Kraig Sitton, 17th round, Boston
- Joey Wong, 24th round, Colorado
- Greg Peavey, 32nd round, Houston
- Adalberto Santos, 35th round, San Diego

Against The 2009 Postseason Field

Oregon State played a tough schedule in 2009, and went 5-5 in the regular season against teams that qualified for the postseason.

Against The Ranked

The Beavers also played nine games against teams that were ranked in the top 25 at the time of the game, and went 4-5. That included taking 2-of-3 from then-No. 3 Arizona State in early May.

Check Out That ERA

Under the guidance of first-year pitching coach Nate Yeskie, the Beavers, with nearly an identical pitching staff, lowered their earned run average nearly a run and a half. OSU saw its ERA end the season at 3.93, with only one of the team's 15 pitchers posting an ERA above 5.00. OSU finished the conference season with an ERA of 3.78, more than a run and a half lower than the 5.47 from a year ago.

Those Are Some Pitching Numbers

The aforementioned ERA placed the Beavers eighth nationally entering the College World Series, with five of the eight Omaha-bound clubs finishing ahead of Oregon State. The Beavers also allowed only 8.2 hits per game, good for sixth nationally, and struck out 7.8 on average, placing them 58th.

Some More National Statistics

Oregon State players drew 304 walks this season, placing them ninth nationally. OSU players also got down 63 sacrifice bunts, placing the Beavers eighth. Defensively, Oregon State lived up to its annual billing, posting a fielding percentage of .977, good for eighth nationally. Oregon State has now finished in the top 15 nationally in fielding percentage in each of the last four years, and in the top 10 in three of the last four.

Quick Note On Sammie Nationally

Sam Gaviglio's 10 victories this season placed him in a tie for 20th nationally, just one win away from tying for ninth. Entering play in Omaha, the 10 wins also put Gaviglio in second place in the Pac-10, behind Arizona State's Mike Leake.

Coming Up On A Milestone

Fans who watch the Beavers in 2010 will have an opportunity to see a milestone that is reached very few times in collegiate baseball. The Beavers' 37 wins in 2009 gave the program 1,989 all-time, meaning the Beavers need just 11 for 2,000 all-time. Of the 1,989 wins, 1,021 have come at what is now Goss Stadium (51.3 percent).

What Ryan Ortiz May Leave With

It is widely assumed that Ryan Ortiz has played his last game in an Oregon State uniform after being drafted in the sixth round by Oakland. He'll leave behind a very impressive career. In three seasons with OSU, and two as the team's starting catcher, he racked up 142 hits, 33 doubles, two triples, 10 home runs and 100 runs batted in. His .348 batting average nearly cracks the Oregon State top 10; he is two percentage points behind Dave Brundage and Mike Leone, who both batted .350 for their careers.

Pac-10 Honors

Ortiz earned First-Team Pac-10 honors. Honorable mention selections were Tyler Waldron, Sam Gaviglio, Kevin Rhoderick, Jared Norris and Adalberto Santos.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Joey Wong, Adalberto Santos and John Tommasini all had two hits but the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team dropped a 5-4 decision to Tennessee in the Beavers' 2009 season opener at Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

Josh Liles singled to right center off Oregon State closer Kevin Rhoderick to drive in Kentrail Davis with the running run. Tennessee had opened the ninth with a 4-3 deficit, but managed two runs off Rhoderick, who dropped to 0-1 this year after being saddled with the loss.

Santos began his Oregon State career with a 2-for-4 effort batting out of the second spot of the batting order. He scored in the third on a double by Ryan Ortiz and singled home Stefen Romero in the fourth.

Wong was 2-for-5 from the leadoff spot and Tommasini had a 2-for-4 afternoon as well. Overall, the Beavers finished with 12 hits – with eight of the nine in the starting lineup recording at least one. Tennessee, meanwhile, had eight off five Oregon State pitchers. Liles, who had the game-winning hit, led the Volunteers with two.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Oregon State baseball team came out in the second game of a three-game series at Tennessee, posting eight runs in the ninth for a 14-4 rout of the host Volunteers at Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

Ryan Ortiz was 3-for-6 to lead the 13-hit Beaver attack, which saw Stefen Romero hit his first career home run and drive in three and Joey Wong finish with two hits for the second straight game. After being down 3-0 after the first four innings, the Beavers came on strong, outscoring Tennessee, 14-1, the rest of the way, posting at least one run in each of the last five innings.

Waldron started the game and went five innings, allowing six hits and three runs in his first Oregon State start. He did not get the decision, however, as Jorge Reyes came on the sixth and proceeded to go three innings, scattering four hits and a run. He struck out three to get his first win of the season.

Romero got Oregon State on the board in the fifth, hitting a home run.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Rob Folsom collected four hits and seven RBI and Jared Norris and Stefen Romero hit back-to-back home runs as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Northern Illinois, 23-7, at the opening game of the DeMarini Invitational at Packard Stadium.

Folsom led the team with four hits, while Romero had two. Norris, Joey Wong and Brett Casey all had two hits.

The Beavers scored nine runs in both the second and seventh innings to cruise to the victory. Including the ninth inning of the second game of the Tennessee series, the Beavers have three innings of eight or more runs in just three games this season.

Folsom drove in his first runs of the game on a bases-clearing triple in the second, part of Oregon State's nine-run inning. He drove in his fourth run of the game in the third on a single to left. Folsom sat on four RBI for the next three innings before driving in his fifth run of the game on a single up the middle in the seventh.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Stefen Romero doubled twice and drove in four runs as the 22nd-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated No. 15 Missouri, 12-8, at Packard Stadium.

The Beavers came back from a 6-5 deficit for their third victory this season. Oregon State initially held a five-run lead, relinquished it, then claimed it back, outscoring the Tigers, 7-3, over the last four innings for the win.

Overall, the Beavers rapped out 13 hits, giving them 33 over their two games at the DeMarini Invitational. Romero finished tied for the team lead with three hits, also singling home a run in the seventh. Rob Folsom also finished with three hits, giving him seven the past two games. Folsom drove in two on Friday.

Joey Wong also finished with two hits.

The Beavers took an early lead, getting up 5-0 after three innings. Ryan Ortiz drove in the game's first run on a ground out in the first. He also scored a run in the Beavers' four-run third.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Carlos Ramirez' solo home run in the eighth inning proved to be the game winner as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a tough contest to No. 5 Arizona State, 6-3, at Packard Stadium.

Ramirez' shot off Oregon State reliever Kraig Sitton broke open a 3-3 tie and helped guide the Sun Devils to the win. Arizona State added two runs in the frame for the 6-3 victory.

Sitton was saddled with the loss after going one full inning. He struck out two and did not issue a walk but fell to 0-1 this season.

The Beavers are 2-1 in their first three games at the DeMarini Invitational, with the final game coming Sunday morning against Northern Illinois. Arizona State, meanwhile, improved to 8-0 this season.

Mitchell Lambson picked up the win for Arizona State after going three innings in relief of starter Seth Blair. Lambson allowed one hit while striking out three for his second win of the season.

Oregon State managed four hits – one apiece from Joey Wong, Stefen Romero, John Wallace and John Tommasini.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Jorge Reyes scattered three hits and one run over five innings and Oregon State's two-run fifth gave the Beavers a 2-1 victory over Northern Illinois at Packard Stadium.

Reyes improved to 2-0 this season. The right-hander, making his first start of the season and second appearance overall, improved to 11-6 all-time as a starter. The start Sunday was the 26th of his career.

Overall, Reyes and three Oregon State relievers combined to limit Northern Illinois to just four hits. The Huskies managed three in the first four innings – two came in the fourth – before a lone hit in the ninth off closer Kevin Rhoderick gave them four.

Rhoderick struck out three in the ninth for his second save of the season. He allowed a hit to Dave Reynolds to open the inning, then struck out Justin Behm and Matt Behren before walking Joe Etchevery. Troy White then walked on a 3-2 count to load the bases with two out. But Rhoderick fought back, striking out the next batter, Alex Jones, to end the game.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – John Wallace went 3-for-4 and Joey Wong, Jared Norris and Adalberto Santos both drove in two runs as the 24th-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated San Francisco, 11-9, at the Palm Springs Tournament.

The Beavers found themselves down, 6-5, after six and a half innings and exploded for five runs in the bottom of the seventh. Jared Norris put Oregon State ahead with a two-run infield single that bounced off the third baseman's glove and hit Santos, driving the ball toward the third base dug-out. Koa Kahalehoe and Wong also drove in runs in the inning.

Oregon State added two runs in the eighth, which proved to be valuable as San Francisco rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth. But Sam Gaviglio, in just his second career appearance, kept the Dons from scoring further for his first career win.

Mark Grbavac picked up the win after going 1 2/3 inning in relief of starter Greg Peavey. Grbavac allowed three runs and two walks while striking out two.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – Stefen Romero drove in two and he, Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos all had two hits to pace Oregon State but the 24th ranked Beavers lost to No. 12 Oklahoma State, 7-5, at the Palm Springs Tournament.

Romero drove in multiple runs for the sixth time in eight games this season, while he posted his fifth multiple-hit effort of the year. For Wong, it was his fifth multiple-hit game of the season and for Santos, it was his second. He posted his first triple of the season in the losing effort.

Tyler Waldron took the loss after allowing seven runs and eight hits over five innings. He struck out four and fell to 0-1 this season.

Andrew Oliver picked up the win for Oklahoma State to improve to 3-0 this year. He went six full innings, scattering six hits and three runs before giving way to three Oklahoma State relievers. The final one, Randy McCurry, earned his fourth save of the year, but not before the Beavers nearly rallied to tie the score.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – Sam Gaviglio scattered four hits and a run in 4 2/3 of relief work and the Oregon State baseball team used a five-run fourth for a 5-1 victory over UC Riverside at the Palm Springs Tournament.

Gaviglio came on in relief of starter Tanner Robles in the fourth and kept UC Riverside's hitters at bay. His only run surrendered came in the sixth on a sacrifice fly. He also struck out one and walked one during his outing, which was his third of the season.

Gaviglio, a freshman from Ashland, Ore., improved to 2-0 this season. In three appearances for the Beavers, he has worked a combined 7 2/3 innings, allowing seven hits and four runs while also posting one save.

The Beavers scored all the runs they needed in the fifth, an inning that saw Oregon State post five of its eight hits. The Beavers sent nine batters to the plate in the frame. Brett Casey, batting in the seven hole as the designated hitter, drove in the first two runs of the game on a single through the right side, driving in Ryan Ortiz and Jared Norris.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – A four-run seventh inning erased a one-run deficit for the 24th-ranked Oregon State baseball team as the Beavers defeated Texas Tech, 9-6, in OSU's finale in Palm Springs.

Down 6-5 entering the bottom half of the seventh, Oregon State sent nine batters to the plate and finished the inning off with four runs, giving the Beavers a three-run cushion. Ryan Ortiz and Adalberto reached on consecutive walks and then moved to second and third, respectively, when Koa Kahalehoe was hit by a pitch. Then, the Beavers tied the game at six when Brett Casey was hit by a pitch. Casey had been pinch hitting for pinch hitter Blake Gibbs and was brought in to face reliever Brian Cloud.

After Jared Norris flew out for the first out of the inning, John Tommasini walked, bringing in Santos for a 7-6 lead. Joey Wong then singled to right, bringing in Casey and Kahalehoe for a 9-6 advantage.

PORTLAND, Ore. – Ryan Ortiz went 2-for-5 and drove in the go-ahead runs in the eighth inning as the 23rd-ranked Oregon State baseball team won a back-and-forth contest against the Missouri State, 8-7, in the first of a three-game series.

Ortiz came to the plate in the eighth inning with a third-inning RBI already to his name. With the bases loaded and only one out, the Beavers' catcher pulled the second pitch he saw from Missouri State pitcher Cody Aycock down the left-field line to drive in the tying and go-ahead runs.

Oregon State pitcher James Nygren gave up one hit, struck out two, and came away with his first win of the season after pitching two scoreless innings in relief of starter Tyler Waldron, who struck out a season-high six hitters in six innings of work. Closer Kevin Rhoderick came on in the ninth to record his fourth save in five attempts this season.

Beavers' second basemen John Tommasini had a career day at the plate, tying a career-high with four hits.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Greg Peavey pitched 5 2/3 innings and tied a career high in strikeouts and John Tommasini drove in two runs in the seventh inning, but it was not enough to overcome Missouri State as the Beavers dropped the second game of the Papé Grand Slam, 5-3.

The game was suspended with two outs in the top of the seventh inning with runners on first and second, and Missouri State right fielder Ben Carlson at the plate with a 2-1 count.

Oregon State pitcher Kraig Sitton took the mound after throwing three pitches in the seventh before the game was suspended.

Zak Swyhart took Carlson's place at the plate when game resumed, and Sitton was relieved by Kevin Rhoderick after one failed pickoff throw moved the runners to second and third.

Rhoderick quickly ended the threat with two straight strikes to retire Swyhart by strikeout.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Sam Gaviglio struck out a career-high eight and pitched his longest outing of the season, and Adalberto Santos extended his hitting streak to eight games but the Beavers dropped the third game of the Papé Grand Slam to Missouri State, 4-2.

Gaviglio turned in the finest performance of his young Oregon State career in relief of starter Jorge Reyes. He pitched 6 1/3 innings while allowing just three baserunners, and did not allow a walk. By striking out eight Missouri State hitters Gaviglio surpassed Tyler Waldron's seven strikeouts against Arizona State for the most strikeouts for an Oregon State pitcher in the 2009 season.

Stefen Romero and John Wallace both had two hits for the Beavers. Oregon State loaded the bases in the ninth before ultimately falling to the Bears for the second time in the series. Santos was 1-for-4 with one walk to extend his team high hitting streak to eight games.

Missouri State starter Aaron Meade pitched six scoreless innings. He struck out six Beaver hitters and allowed four hits and walked three.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Tyler Waldron pitched eight shutout innings and Ryan Ortiz tied a season-high with three hits as the Oregon State baseball team won its 2009 home opener in convincing fashion with a 7-0 win over Utah Valley at Goss Stadium.

Waldron was sharp from the first pitch as he struck out three of the first five hitters that came to the plate. The Wolverines were not able to muster a hit off of the Beaver hurler until the fourth inning, and only collected three against Waldron in his team-high eight innings of work. His six strikeouts in the game tied a season high, which he last achieved on February 28 against Arizona State.

The win for Waldron improved him to 1-1 this season.

Oregon State catcher Ryan Ortiz had arguably his best game at the plate all season, going 3-for-3 with one walk in four plate appearances. He was in the middle of every Beaver rally, scoring two runs and driving in three more. His bases-clearing double in the fifth inning broke the game open for Oregon State.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Joey Wong hit the first grand slam of the season for Oregon State and Ryan Gorton won his first collegiate start as the Beavers took down Utah Valley, 17-2, at Goss Stadium.

Oregon State posted 13 hits, 11 walks and five hit by pitches in the victory, which sent them to their second straight victory over the Wolverines.

The middle of the Beavers' lineup was brutally efficient, as Adalberto Santos, Stefan Romero, and Logan Boyd combined for five hits in eleven at-bats, and driving in eight runs, and scoring eight more. Romero went 2-for-5 and Boyd reached base in all four of his plate appearances. He connected with a 1-0 pitch in the third inning that he drove over the right-centerfield fence for his first home run of the year.

Gorton made sure that the Beavers offensive production would stand up as he shut down Utah Valley in his five innings of work. He started the game off strong; striking out three of the first six hitters he faced and faced the minimum three hitters in three of his five innings.

Santos extended his team high hitting streak to 11 games with a single in the fourth inning. He continued his day with a run scoring double in the following inning before coming to the plate in the sixth with two runners on and smashing his second home run of the weekend. At the end of the day, Santos had driven in four runs while scoring three.

Logan Boyd added to the attack with a two-for-three effort from the plate, driving in runners in the fifth and eighth innings. The two hits marked his first multi-hit game of the 2009 season. Logan Lotti made his mark on the game as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning, when he launched a run-scoring double down the right field line for his first extra-base hit and RBI of his Oregon State career.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - John Tommasini drove in three runs and Michael Miller knocked in two more in his first start of the season as the Oregon State baseball team improved to 4-0 at Goss Stadium in 2009 by defeating Saint Mary's, 9-3, in the fourth game of a five-game homestand.

Tommasini and Miller combined to go five-for-seven from the bottom two spots of the order and scored four of the Beavers nine runs. Both players were in the middle of Beaver rallies in the second and seventh that turned the game in favor of Oregon State. Miller's two hits were a career high, as were his two RBI and two runs scored.

Adalberto Santos continued his hot hitting with an RBI single in the fourth inning that extended his hit streak to 12 games. Catcher Ryan Ortiz went two-for-four from the plate to give him a four-game hitting streak. Over those four games, Ortiz has hit .467 with five RBIs and five runs scored.

Stefen Romero also recorded two singles for his team-leading 10th multi-hit game of the season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Jorge Reyes struck out a career high 11 in seven innings of work, and John Tommasini continued his hot hitting with a 3-for-4 effort as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Hawai'i, 8-4, to cap off a season-long five-game homestand with a perfect mark.

Reyes' 11 strikeouts were the most by an Oregon State pitcher since Mike Stutes fanned 12 against UNLV on April 20, 2007. Reyes held the Rainbows to four hits over seven innings of work, his longest outing since throwing eight innings against Pacific on May 24 of last season.

He improved to 3-1 on the season, earning his 10th career non-conference victory in the process.

The Oregon State offensive attack was led by Tommasini's three hits, which drove in two Beavers' runs. The effort was his fourth multi-hit game of the season and second three-hit performance in as many games. John Wallace also pitched in with a two-hit game, reaching base three times and scoring two runs. The Beavers are now 8-0 when John Wallace hits in the top two spots in the order.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - The Beavers baseball team added four runs in the top of the ninth to put the game out of reach for the Ducks in a 7-1 victory at PK Park in Eugene, Ore., Friday during the Civil War series presented by the Northwest Dodge Dealers in front of a sellout crowd. The game marked the first between the two clubs in 28 years.

Oregon State started off the ninth inning with a 3-1 lead, but added four big runs by capitalizing on three errors by Duck pitchers to take the 7-1 lead.

Beaver catcher Ryan Ortiz stroked a line drive to center field to start off the ninth inning for his second hit of the day. Ortiz then advanced to second on a throwing error by the pitcher on an attempted pickoff play to first. Stefan Romero followed by reaching safely on another error by the Duck pitcher to put runners at first and second.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Jorge Reyes threw seven innings and Stefan Romero posted his 10th multiple-RBI game of the season as the Oregon State baseball team took the Civil War series finale over Oregon, 8-1, in front of 13,709 fans at PGE Park.

Reyes won his second straight game after going a full seven innings against the Ducks. He limited Oregon to just two hits while walking three and striking out six to improve to 4-1 this season and 13-7 all-time as a starter. His only run allowed came in the seventh and was unearned.

In his last two starts, the native of Warden, Wash., has scattered six hits and three earned runs over 14 innings of work. During that stretch, in which he is 2-0, Reyes has struck out 17 and walked six.

Romero, meanwhile, extended his hit streak to four games by going 2-for-4. He drove in the game's first run with a single in the first and then singled home two more in the fifth. The two RBI gave Oregon State an 8-0 lead, with John Wallace and Adalberto Santos scoring on the play. It capped off a three-run inning.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Greg Peavey pitched a career-high seven innings and held California to two runs, and three Beavers chipped in two-RBI base hits to push Oregon State past the Golden Bears, 6-2, in front of a Goss Stadium regular season record crowd of 2,789.

After giving up a leadoff home run to California's Brett Jackson to start off the game, Peavey (3-1) settled down and retired the next nine consecutive hitters. He spread four hits across seven innings and his seven strikeouts on the day tied a career-high last achieved against Missouri State on March 20.

Peavey improved to 3-1 on the year and dropped his earned run average to 3.06.

John Wallace, Michael Miller, and John Tommasini each had two-RBI base hits in the game. Miller put the Beavers on the board in the second with a single up the middle that gave the Beavers a 2-1 lead. The Oregon State right fielder reached base three times in the game and is hitting .429 on the season in 17 games.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Stefan Romero produced his team-leading 11th multi-hit game of the season and Greg Peavey did not allow an earned run for the second straight start, but the Oregon State baseball team dropped an extra innings contest, 3-2, to Oregon in front of 15,540 at PGE Park.

Romero went 2-for-5 from the plate, as well as scoring one Beaver (14-6 overall, 1-1 Pacific-10 Conference) run and driving in the other. Joey Wong equaled Romero's hit total, going 2-for-3 with singles in the first and fourth innings. The two hits gave Wong his eighth two-hit game of the season.

Peavey turned in his second consecutive outing without allowing an earned run. He spread out four hits over six innings and struck out three. He, however, did not figure in the decision.

The game was scoreless through the first six innings of the game as Peavey was matched by Oregon starter Erik Stavert. John Wallace got the Beavers their first lead in the seventh inning with a hard-hit single up the middle that drove in Romero from second. Romero helped the Beavers tack on their second run with a double to the right-center-field wall that scored Ortiz from first.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Tyler Waldron struck out a season-high eight and Adalberto Santos went 3-for-4 as the Oregon State baseball team overcame an early deficit to take down California, 8-4, in front of a crowd of 2,138.

Waldron (3-1) picked up his third win in as many starts, pitching into the eighth inning for the third straight time by going 7 2/3 innings. The Oregon State starter struck out eight California hitters and did not walk a batter.

After a rough start that saw the Bears use a strong wind blowing out to left field to hit four doubles in the first three innings and build up a 2-0 lead, Waldron settled down and held them scoreless for the next 4 2/3 innings.

Santos led the Beavers' attack with his sixth multi-hit game of the season, knocking three singles and driving in two runs. The Beaver utility man has collected a hit in 20 of the Beavers' 22 games this season and has driven in multiple runners in six games.

The win gave the Beavers a sweep of the Golden Bears after winning 8-4 on Friday and 6-2 on Saturday. It is Oregon State's first sweep of a Pac-10 club since taking three from Washington State in 2006. It is also the Beavers' first Pac-10 sweep at home since taking all three from Stanford that season.

The Beavers entered the bottom of the 11th inning down one after California (15-14 overall, 3-6 Pacific-10 Conference) took its first lead of the game in the top half of the inning. One-out walks by Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos, and a single by Stefan Romero loaded the bases for Carter Bell. Bell, who entered the game as a defensive replacement in the ninth, drove an offering from pitcher Kevin Miller (1-2) up the middle to tie the game at four and set the stage for Ortiz.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Ryan Ortiz tied a career-high by going 4-for-5 and the 16th-ranked Oregon State baseball team utilized a four-run eighth for a 9-5 victory over Arizona at Sancet Stadium.

On Thursday, Ortiz posted four hits for the third time of his career, singling in the fourth, fifth, eighth and ninth innings. He also drove in one as the Beavers stretch their win streak to five games, their second-longest of the season.

The Beavers pulled from behind with the big four-run seventh in which Oregon State took advantage of an error on Arizona closer Jason Stoffel and posted five hits. Ortiz started off the inning by reaching on an infield single and moved all the way to third when Stoffel overthrew first on a failed pickoff attempt.

The Beavers' catcher scored when the next batter, Jared Norris, singled home his second run of the game. He moved to second on a groundout by Brett Casey, then broke the 5-5 tie when Logan Lotti doubled to left center.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Ryan Gorton worked five solid innings of relief and Oregon State attempted rallies in each of the last five innings, but the 16th-ranked Beavers dropped a 6-5 decision to Arizona.

Gorton worked in relief and scattered just two hits and two runs while striking out three. His relief effort helped the Beavers nearly overcome an early 5-2 deficit. However, the Beavers stranded 12 runners, including nine in the last five innings. Oregon State stranded one in the ninth after Brett Casey singled with one out.

But after Casey reached base, Jason Stoffel, Arizona's closer, got the final two outs of the game for his sixth save of the season. It gave Joe Allison, Arizona's first reliever of the game, his first win of the season after going 1 2/3 innings.

Greg Peavey started for the Beavers and went three innings before being replaced by Ryan Gorton in the fourth. Peavey was touched for seven hits and six runs in his seventh start of the season. He dropped to 3-2 this season.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Joey Wong went 3-for-5 and Jared Norris hit a home run for the second consecutive day as the duo helped lead the 16th-ranked Oregon State baseball team to a 8-3 win over Arizona in the three-game series finale.

With the win, the Beavers took the series from the Wildcats, 2-1. It's Oregon State's first series win in Tucson since the 1963 season when Arizona was a member of the Western Athletic Conference and the teams were meeting for the first time.

The win also put Oregon State at 20-7 overall this season – and 7-2 in Pacific-10 Conference play. The team reached the 20-win plateau in just 27 games; last year's club took 34 games to win 20.

On Saturday, Wong set a season-high with three hits. He singled in the first and duplicated his first at bat in the second, driving in two runs. In the seventh, he reached on a double to start the inning and scored on Norris' third home run of the season. Wong now has 10 multiple-hit games this season, putting him just two behind his season total of 12 last season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Michael Miller went 2-for-2 and drove in two runs, and Ryan Ortiz added two more hits as the Beavers improved to 9-0, defeating visiting BYU, 9-7, at Goss Stadium.

Miller collected his third multi-hit game of the season with singles in the second and fifth innings. His first-inning single with the bases loaded scored two OSU runners.

Ortiz reached base in his first three plate appearances and scored in the second inning. He went 2-for-3 with a walk to extend his hit streak to seven games. During those games, the catcher is hitting .551 with 10 runs scored and seven RBI.

Oregon State infielder Stefen Romero lined a double down the first base line in the fourth inning for his team leading 29th RBI of the season.

Josh Osich and Sam Gaviglio combined to throw eight innings, allowing six runs on nine hits. Both pitchers struck out five Cougar hitters. The five strikeouts were a career high for Osich, who also threw a season-long four innings.

After the Beavers had fallen behind 1-0 in the second inning, a one-out double by Max Shupe and an error by Cougar (20-15) second basemen Andrew Law on a Koa Kahalehoe ground ball set the stage for Miller. The sophomore came through in a huge way, launching the offering from Marc Oslund (3-1 in 2009) off the top of the scoreboard in right-center field for his first career home run. The blast drove in three runs and put Oregon State ahead for good.

Ortiz doubled in the second inning to drive in Brett Casey and extend his hitting streak to eight games. The Beavers' catcher is 18-of-33 (.545) over the streak, which is the second-longest by an Oregon State hitter this season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Ryan Ortiz went 2-for-3 with two doubles and Tyler Waldron pitched through the seventh inning for the fourth time in nine starts, but it was not enough as USC was able to hold off the Beavers for a 4-3 win at Goss Stadium.

Ortiz extended his hitting streak to nine games in the fourth inning with a two-out double that was driven down the right field line. The Beavers' catcher added a second double in the eighth inning with a drive that bounced off the center field wall for his 14th extra-base hit of the season.

Tyler Waldron took the loss for the Beavers despite retiring the final 10 hitters he faced. The Trojans got to Waldron early as USC shortstop Grant Green scored from first on a hit-and-run by Ricky Oropesa in the first. Waldron allowed three more runs over the next three innings, but did not allow a baserunner after the fourth inning.

Waldron dropped to 3-2 on the year.

Peavey scattered five Trojans' hits over 7 1/3 innings, striking out six and walking just two while receiving a no-decision. The Beavers' right-hander retired the side in order in four of his seven full innings and at one point retired seven Trojans in a row. The outing was Peavey's second in three games in which he completed seven innings.

Ortiz used a single through the left side of the infield to lead off the eighth inning to extent his hitting streak to 10 games, which ties his career-long streak achieved during the 2008 season. The catcher finished the afternoon 1-for-3, scoring a run in Oregon State's two-run first.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Koa Kahalehoe scored the game-winning run in the 10th inning on an errant throw from USC pitcher Daniel Cooper, giving the 14th-ranked Oregon State baseball team a 5-4 victory in the series finale.

After Kraig Sitton and Kevin Rhoderick combined to retire the side in the top of the 10th, Kahalehoe led the bottom half of the inning off with an infield single. Michael Miller followed that with a line drive past USC first baseman Ricky Oropesa to put two runners on with no outs for the Beavers. John Tommasini then bunted to Cooper, who overthrew third baseman Billy Pinkerton and allowed Kahalehoe to score from second and give the Beavers the extra-innings victory.

Miller went 3-for-3 and drove in two runs to pace the Beavers, Kahalehoe and Stefen Romero finished with two apiece in the 10-hit attack for the Beavers, who dodged being swept at home by a conference club for the first time since 2007.

The Beavers got their other four runs in the first courtesy of a Romero double and a two-RBI single by Miller. Ryan Ortiz also scored on a bases-loaded fielding error by second baseman Joe De Pinto.

LOS ANGELES – Stefen Romero hit his team-leading fourth home run of the season but the Oregon State baseball team could not hold on to a four-run lead in a 7-5 loss at UCLA at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

Romero hit a two-run home run in the third to cap off a three-run inning for the Beavers, who took a 5-1 lead at that point. Romero's shot was his fourth of the season, giving him the team lead, and was his first since March 13.

The home run and four-run lead after three innings did not hold up, however, as UCLA scored six unanswered runs for the win. The loss dropped the 17th-ranked Beavers to 23-10 overall and 8-5 in Pacific-10 Conference games this season. UCLA, meanwhile, improved to 18-20 overall and 10-6 in conference games.

Oregon State took a 2-0 lead in the first. Ryan Ortiz tripled home John Wallace and Romero drove in his first run of the game on a groundout to second.

LOS ANGELES – Joey Wong's single up the middle capped off a three-run ninth as the Oregon State baseball team rallied for a 5-3 win over UCLA at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

Down 3-2 entering the ninth, Oregon State needed to rally to win its first game of the weekend. Wong's single up the middle scored two and capped off a excellent fundamental inning for the Beavers, who utilized three hits, a walk and a sacrifice bunt to take a two-run lead off UCLA and Gavin Brooks, who dropped to 0-3 this season.

Rob Folsom started off the inning with a single up the middle, and moved to second on a Brett Casey sacrifice bunt. Adalberto Santos, pinch hitting for Michael Miller, walked, setting up runners on first and second with one out.

Both runners moved up a base when Brooks threw his first pitch to Max Shupe in the dirt. The next pitch Brooks threw to Shupe came back through the box on a single up the middle, tying the game when Folsom scored from third. Brent Warren then pinch ran for Shupe, and moved to second on a passed ball, setting up Wong.

Of the three runs allowed by Reyes, just one was unearned. Oregon State committed five errors on the afternoon – two while Reyes was on the hill – giving the Beavers' pitching staff four unearned runs on the day.

Reyes allowed a UCLA run in the third when Steve Rodriguez hit his first home run of the season. He was victimized for two unearned runs in the fifth to take the loss and fall to 5-2 on the year.

UCLA added to its 3-2 lead in the seventh when the Beavers committed three errors. Rodriguez singled to start the inning, moved to third on a pickoff overthrow and then scored when Stefen Romero could not hold on to a throw from Carter Bell. Blair Dunlap, who was the runner who reached on the error, scored all the way from first when the next batter, Cody Decker, singled.

With the game tied at two in the fifth inning, Wallace came to the plate with the bases loaded and no outs. The OSU center fielder pulled a 1-1 offering from Oregon starter Madison Boer (1-5) over the right field fence to break the tie and give Oregon State a lead they never relinquished. The grand slam was Wallace's first of his career and the Beavers second of the season. A sacrifice fly in the eighth inning gave him five RBI on the day, a career-high.

Ortiz singled twice to extend his hitting streak to four games and give him a team-leading 17th multi-hit effort on the season. The Beavers' catcher has a hit in 14 of his last 15 games, with two or more base knocks in 12 of those contests. His single in the first inning to drive in Wallace gave the Beavers their 22nd first-inning run and Ortiz his 28th RBI of the year.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State rallied for two runs in the ninth inning, but it was not enough to overcome four early runs from No. 3 Arizona State in a 4-2 loss at Goss Stadium. A regular season record crowd of 3,129 was on hand to watch the game.

Entering the bottom of the ninth down 4-0, Ryan Ortiz led the inning off by drawing a walk off of Arizona State starter Mike Leake. Stefen Romero followed that with a double off the left field wall and Jared Norris was then hit by a pitch to bring the tying run to the plate in the form of Adalberto Santos.

Santos drove the ball into right field, but was robbed on a diving catch on the warning track by Matt Newman that turned the play into a sacrifice fly. Koa Kahalehoe followed that up with a deep fly ball to left that scored one more run, but Michael Miller grounded out on the next pitch to end the Beavers' threat.

Tanner Robles started on the mound for the Beavers for the fifth time this season and struck out a season-high six hitters in five innings of work. The southpaw did not walk a batter for the second straight start.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Koa Kahalehoe came through with a two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Oregon State baseball team a comeback victory over No. 3 Arizona State at Goss Stadium.

After falling 3-2 in the top half of the ninth courtesy of a Drew Maggi triple for Arizona State, the Beavers loaded the bases with one out in the bottom half of the inning for Jared Norris. The OSU first baseman fell behind in the count, 1-2, before hitting a fly ball to center fielder Jason Kipnis that was deep enough to score Rob Folsom from third.

A walk by Adalberto Santos loaded the bases once again for the Beavers and brought Kahalehoe to the plate with two outs. After fouling off numerous pitches from Sun Devils' pitcher Mitchell Lambson, the Oregon State senior lined an offering into left field for a base hit that drove home Ryan Ortiz for the game-winning run.

Norris went 2-for-4 for Oregon State and drove in two of the Beavers' four runs, the first coming on a single to left-center field in the fifth inning. Norris now has 23 RBI and multiple hits in five games this season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State scored nine unanswered runs to come from behind for the second consecutive game and secure a 10-5 victory over No. 3 Arizona State at Goss Stadium. The win gave the Beavers a series victory over the Pac-10's first-place team.

After tying the game in the seventh inning, Oregon State put its first six hitters on base in the bottom of the eighth. Stefen Romero led the inning off with a single to right-center and Jared Norris followed with a five-pitch walk. Adalberto Santos then stepped to the plate and showed bunt on the first pitch he saw from Sun Devils' reliever Matt Newman, but pulled back and hit a line drive past charging first baseman Riccio Torrez and into right field to drive in Romero from second and put the Beavers ahead for good.

Santos came through with singles in his final two at-bats for his second consecutive 2-for-4 day and his ninth multi-hit effort of the season. The designated hitter had four hits in 10 at-bats and drove in three runs over the weekend.

Joey Wong reached base in four of his five plate appearances, going 2-for-3.

PORTLAND, Ore. – Sam Gaviglio struck out seven and scattered three hits and a run over five innings to pace the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team to a 5-1 victory over Portland at Joe Etzel Field.

Adalberto Santos and Ryan Ortiz both drove in two runs for the Beavers, who improved to 17-5 on the year in non-conference games. Oregon State has now won nine straight non-conference games.

Gaviglio started for the third time this season and picked up his seventh win of the season, which leads the team. His only blemish came in the fourth when Riley Hendricks hit his fourth home run of the season over the left field fence.

Gaviglio, whose earned run average now sits at 3.49, has allowed just six hits and three runs over his last two outings, both starts. During that stretch, he has 13 strikeouts in 10 innings.

Ortiz finished with two hits for his 18th multiple-hit game of the season. His two RBI came on a single to left in the Beavers' (28-12 overall) three-run fifth, which gave Oregon State a four-run cushion.

SEATTLE – Tanner Robles allowed just three Washington baserunners in 6 1/3 innings and the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team held off a late rally to defeat the Huskies, 6-4, in front of 4,296 at Safeco Field.

Robles won his first game of the season in impressive fashion. He limited the Huskies to just two hits and one walk while striking out three. The 6 1/3 innings constituted his longest outing of the season and he threw just 77 pitches.

Washington managed to get a runner on second just twice against Robles, who, after giving up a hit to start the game, retired the next 16 batters he faced. The Huskies managed a mini rally in the sixth, putting runners on first and second courtesy of a hit and a walk, but the lefty got the third out of the inning on a popup to short.

Already up 2-0 after five, the Beavers gave themselves a big cushion with four runs in the sixth, all coming off Washington reliever Tyler Cheney. Stefen Romero capped off the inning with a triple to right center.

SEATTLE – Ryan Ortiz hit his second home run of the season but it was not enough to help the Beavers overcome a 11-run deficit to Washington in a 15-6 loss to the Huskies at Husky Ballpark.

Ortiz's shot drove in three and was his first home run since April 11 at Arizona. It capped off a six-run stretch for the Beavers over the sixth and seventh innings, but proved to be too late to break Washington's big offensive day.

Ortiz ended the game a triple short of the cycle. He doubled in the first and singled to right in the sixth. The junior extended his hit streak to four games and is one off his third hit streak of five games or more this season. His multi-hit effort was his 20th of the season while his three RBI marked his ninth multi-RBI game of 2009.

Michael Miller also had two hits for his fifth multiple-hit game of the season.

Washington hit two home runs over the first two innings and held an 11-0 lead after the fifth inning had been completed.

SEATTLE – Washington pinch hitter Aaron Russell's RBI double in the seventh proved to be the game-winner as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a 4-3 decision to the Huskies in the rubber match of a three-game series at Husky Ballpark.

Russell doubled off the left center wall off Oregon State reliever Kraig Sitton, driving in Caleb Brown and snapping a 3-3 tie.

Sitton dropped to 1-3.

Oregon State posted eight hits to Washington's six, but stranded 11 runners. The Huskies stranded 12 as well. In fact, the teams combined to leave 58 runners on base over the three-game series.

Jared Norris, Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos all had two hits apiece to help account for the eight hits on the afternoon.

Jorge Reyes made his 11th start of the season and lasted four innings before being pulled for Ryan Gorton in the fifth with runners on first and second. Reyes allowed four hits and three runs, but walked six while striking out five.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State starter Tyler Waldron pitched a complete game two-hitter in an 8-1 victory over Gonzaga in game one of a two game mid-week series at Goss Stadium.

Waldron's complete game is the first for the Beavers this year and only the second in the past three years. His two hits both came in the sixth with two outs. He allowed one run, and struck out eight batters. The eight strikeouts tied his season high.

Going into the bottom of the eighth, Oregon State had a slim 2-1 lead when freshman Carter Bell added insurance runs for the Beavers in the bottom of the eighth with a three-run home run over the left field wall. The three-run shot is the first of Bell's career.

The Beavers struck first in the bottom of the first when Michael Miller led off for the Beavers with a single to left field off Bulldogs' starting pitcher Ryan Carpenter. Rob Folsom came up next and drew a four-pitch walk advancing Miller to second. After Ryan Ortiz advanced Miller to third base on a fly ball to center field, Folsom moved to second on a wild pitch.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Adalberto Santos went 3-for-5 and hit two home runs, but it was not enough as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a 7-6 decision to Washington State in front of 2,749 at Goss Stadium.

Santos hit home runs to both right and left field in the game and became the first Oregon State hitter to homer twice in a game since Drew George against Pacific on March 10 of last season. The Oregon State designated hitter drove in two runs and scored three while collecting his 11th multi-hit game of the season.

Ryan Ortiz also came through with a three-hit game and homered for the third time this season, it coming in the third inning. The long ball was the eighth of his career and the multi-hit effort was his team-leading 21st of the season.

Jared Norris went 3-for-3 with three singles to extend his hitting streak to six games. The first baseman scored the Beavers' first run of the game in the second inning.

Making his fourth start of the season, and his first against Pac-10 competition, Gaviglio spread four hits through 7 2/3 innings, striking out four and walking just one to pick up his team-leading eighth win of the season. The walk was Gaviglio's first in 14 2/3 innings of work, the last coming on April 19 against USC.

In his last 19 2/3 innings, Gaviglio, now 8-1 on the year, has issued one walk.

Norris hit in the fourth spot of the lineup for the Beavers for just the fourth time this season. He made the decision pay off by collecting his ninth multi-RBI game this year, driving in runs in both the first and sixth innings. The 2-for-4 effort extended his hitting streak to seven games. Norris is now 5-for-8 in the series against the Cougars and is hitting .481 during his current hitting streak.

Ortiz collected RBI in three of his five at-bats. With the Beavers trailing 6-5 in the seventh inning, the Oregon State catcher led the inning off with his fourth home run of the year, it going to right field, to tie the game at six. The three RBI-effort was his fifth of the year, and the three hits gave Ortiz his team-leading 22nd multi-hit game of the year.

As the second hitter of the game for the Beavers, Folsom lifted a pitch from Washington State starter David Stilley over the left field wall for the first home run of his career and the first by a Beaver in the first inning. His single in the fourth inning gave the junior his fourth multi-hit effort of 2009.

With two outs in the second inning, Carter Bell singled through the right side to give himself a three-game hitting streak.

The win makes Casey 500-311-4 at Oregon State in his career. He has led the Beavers to at least 30 wins in 10 of his 15 seasons at Oregon State in addition to national championships in 2006 and 2007. Casey earned his first victory at Oregon State with a 4-3 win over Western Oregon on Feb. 22, 1995.

He is now one of three OSU coaches to win at least 500 in their tenure with the Beavers. Jack Riley won 613 from 1973-94 and Ralph Coleman won 561 in four different stints from 1923-66.

Making his second consecutive Tuesday start, Waldron was dominant while improving his record to 5-3. The righty struck out a career-high 10, including striking out the side in the second inning. Waldron retired 15 consecutive Oregon hitters from the third until the eighth inning.

Over the last two starts, Waldron has struck out 18 hitters in 16 1/3 innings.

KEIZER, Ore. – Salem native Joey Wong hit a bases-loaded double in Oregon State's five-run fourth to help pace the Beavers past Oregon, 14-4, in front of 5,177 fans at Volcanoes Stadium.

The double highlighted Wong's night, which saw the shortstop post a season-high four hits.

Wong doubled to the left-center gap in the fourth, driving in John Wallace, Rob Folsom and John Tommasini. It highlighted the inning, which also saw run-scoring singles from Adalberto Santos and Jared Norris. The inning saw the Beavers send 10 batters the plate and take advantage of four hits, two walks and an Oregon error.

Wong's double was his second hit of the game. He singled past the third-base bag in the third but was stranded to end the inning. He finished the game 4-for-6 after singling twice in the Beavers' eight-run sixth.

Already up 6-2 entering the sixth, the Beavers sent 13 batters to the plate and scored eight runs to take a 14-2 lead. Wong had two hits in the inning, while Tommasini and Stefen Romero both drove in two.

STANFORD, Calif. – Freshman Sam Gaviglio tossed Oregon State's first complete-game shutout in more than three years, holding Stanford to just three hits in a 5-0 win over Stanford at Sunken Diamond.

Gaviglio allowed singles in the second, third and fourth innings. He retired the last 16 batters he faced and struck out seven while walking none. In his last 29 innings, Gaviglio has walked one.

The complete-game shutout is the Beavers' first in more than 38 months. Jonah Nickerson was the last Beavers' pitcher to go the distance and keep his opponent off the board. He did so against Nevada on March 4, 2006.

Gaviglio, a native of Ashland, Ore., improved to 9-1. Though official historical records are incomplete, it is believed to be an Oregon State freshman record for wins in a single season.

Gaviglio has now won his last six decisions, with three coming in the month of May. He came into Friday night's game with an earned run average of 3.38. He dropped it to 2.84 with the shutout of the Cardinal. He has a 1.88 ERA and three wins in Pac-10 play this season.

STANFORD, Calif. – Oregon State rallied with runs in the seventh and eighth innings, but the Beavers could not hold off Stanford late and dropped a 7-6 decision to the Cardinal at Sunken Diamond.

Down 5-3 entering the seventh, Oregon State managed two runs in the inning off a passed ball and a wild pitch. The two runs evened the score at five, but the Beavers allowed two runs in the bottom half of the inning.

OSU rallied in the eighth when Drew Storen, Stanford's closer, struck out Koa Kahalehoe. But the pitch was wild, allowing Jared Norris to score from third and pull OSU to within one. But Storen was able to get the final four outs of the game to improve to 7-1 on the year and give the Cardinal a 30-24 record (and 13-13 mark in Pacific-10 Conference play).

Tanner Robles, throwing in his first game in relief this season, dropped to 1-3 after taking the loss. He allowed two runs and no hits in three innings of work.

Three Beavers had two hits in the loss: Kahalehoe, Stefen Romero and John Wallace.

The Beavers drew six walks against TCU starter Kyle Winkler, but produced just two hits off the freshman over eight innings. Winkler improved to 7-0 on the year.

TCU scored a combined six runs in the second through fifth innings, highlighted by the Horned Frogs' first two on a home run off the bat of Chris Ellington. They added solo runs in the third and fourth innings before plating two more in the fifth. TCU's first run in the fifth came on a Tyler Waldron wild pitch and the second when Matt Vern doubled down the left field line.

Oregon State broke up Winkler's no hitter in the sixth. Joey Wong singled up the middle to start the inning, then stole second on a Ryan Ortiz strikeout. Wong was then driven in for OSU's only run of the game when Jared Norris singled to center.

FORT WORTH, Texas - Koa Kahalehoe went 5-for-5 and drove in three runs, and Jorge Reyes pitched a complete game with six strikeouts as the Beavers eliminated Texas A&M 13-5 in the Fort Worth Regional.

Kahalehoe hit third in the order for the first time this season and made the decision pay off, tying a school record with five hits and driving in three runs while scoring two of his own. The effort raised his batting average 42 points to .272.

Reyes got the start for the Beavers and threw his first complete game of the season, and the third by an Oregon State pitcher all year. He held the Aggies scoreless through 5 1/3 innings before giving up a solo home run to Joe Patterson. With the win Reyes improved to 6-2, tying him with Tyler Waldron for second-most on the team.

Ryan Ortiz hit behind Kahalehoe in the order and collected four hits of his own, including his team-leading fifth home run of the year in the second inning. He scored two runs to improve his team-leading total to 54.

FORT WORTH, Tex. – Oregon State had a chance late in the game but fell to TCU, 5-4.

Oregon State had an early 4-0 lead but saw it dwindle away as the Horned Frogs fought back to tie the game with one run in the third and three runs in the fifth inning before heading into the ninth inning tied 4-4.

The Beavers had a chance in the top of the ninth when John Wallace singled to center field with one out. Wallace advanced to second on a Joey Wong grounded to first base for the second out. John Tommasini came to bat having driven in four runs in the previous three games of the Fort Worth Regional but struck out looking to end the Beavers chances in the ninth.

Oregon State closer Kevin Rhoderick pitched a 1-2-3 eighth inning before moving into the ninth where he struck out the first batter. He then gave up a base hit by Bryan Holaday who advanced to second on a wild pitch. After a walk, TCU freshman Jason Coats hit a walk-off single to left field scoring Holaday from second and ending the Beavers postseason hopes. Rhoderick received the loss falling to 3-3 on the season.
