Beavers Advance To NCAA Regionals

The Oregon State men's golf team earned its sixth consecutive berth to the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships where it will be the No. 9 seed in the regional that will compete May 17-19 at the Stanford Golf Course in Stanford, Calif.

The six regionals will consist of a three-day, 54-hole tournament with 13 teams at three of the regions and 14 teams at the other three. The low five teams from each region will advance to the NCAA Championships at Riviera Country Club in Pacific Palisades, Calif., from May 29 to June 3.

The Beavers have become a regular at the NCAA Regionals with six consecutive appearances, including trips in 14 of the past 20 years. It's taking that next step that head coach Jon Reehoorn wants to consistently make as Oregon State has advanced to the NCAA Championships just three times in those 20 years.

"Oregon State has enjoyed success the last few years, but we've only been to the NCAA Championship once," Reehoorn said. "In order to be a prominent program, we need to get to the NCAA Championship each and every year. I think we are definitely on the right track, but we won't be satisfied until we are regular participants at the NCAA Championship."

After a 26-year absence from the NCAA Championships between 1968 and 1993, Oregon State earned a trip in 1994 (25th) and again in 2011 (tie for 12th). The Beavers finished fourth at the 2010 regionals, their best finish in school history, and advanced to the NCAA Championships in Ooletwah, Tenn., where they finished in 16th place.

Oregon State is very familiar with the Stanford Golf Course as the Pac-12 Championships were held there last year and the U.S. Intercollegiate was held there this spring when the Beavers finished in seventh place with junior Nick Chianello posting a top-20 finish.

The Beavers have enjoyed another successful year with two team titles (Pacific Invitational and Fresno State Lexus Classic), their most in a season since 2007, and a fifth place finish at the Pac-12 Championships that were held at Trysting Tree Golf Club in Corvallis. At the conference tournament, Oregon State finished behind four of the nation's Top 11 teams, according to the golfstat.com rankings, and ahead of No. 9 Stanford and No. 13 Washington.
