LAST TIME ON THE FLOOR

Oregon State punched its ticket to the NCAA Championships for the fourth straight year and the 20th time overall when the Beavers finished second at the NCAA Central Regional last week at Columbus, Ohio. The Beavers, who traveled to Columbus (and competed in the Central Regional) for the first time, made things difficult on themselves by creating extra pressure with falls on bars (to start the meet) and floor. However, each time the pressure was on, the following OSU gymnasts were up to the task. Oregon State scored 196.800 to secure the NCAA berth and finished second to LSU (196.875). Individually, Mandi Rodriguez tied her career-high on the vault, for the second meet in a row, with a score of 9.95 to tie for the event title and added a 9.925 on the floor to win the title. Rodriguez finished with a 39.350 in the all-around and Jami Lanz scored 39.300 to finish second and fourth respectively. OSU scored over 49-points on each event and tallied the meet's highest score on floor (49.275) and tied for the highest on the beam (49.050) as well as tying the Beavers' season-high on the vault (for the second meet in a row) with a score of 49.325.

OSU'S HISTORY AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

2009 marks the Beavers' 20th appearance at the NCAA Championships ... In addition, this is the fourth straight trip to nationals ... This is also the seventh trip to nationals under the guidance of 12th year head coach Tanya Chaplin ... OSU's best finish at NAAs was a fourth place finish in 1996 at Tuscaloosa, Ala. ... The Beavers finished for 11th in 2008 for the third straight year ... OSU's most recent top 10 finish came in

OREGON STATE

2000 when the Beavers finished 10th.

LAST YEAR AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Beavers finished the afternoon preliminary session at Athens, Ga. disappointed with the conclusion to their season, another 11th place finish. Despite "hitting" 22-24 routines and not counting a fall, OSU scored only 195.475 to take sixth in the session after having won the NCAA West Regional earlier in the month. Three gymnasts earned All-America honors with Yuki Lamb reaching individual finals on the vault. Lamb finished seventh place overall to earn first team honors. Jen Kesler added second team All-American honors on the uneven bars and Jami Lanz earned second team on the balance beam.

RETURNING TO NATIONALS

Oregon State once again returns an experienced group to the NCAA Championships. Seven current OSU gymnasts competed at Athens in 2008 consisting of 19 out of 24 routines ... In addition, seven gymnasts were also in the competitive lineup at the 2007 championships meet at Salt Lake City that included 18 routines ... Further, three of OSU's seniors (Kera Bolen, Jami Lanz and Tasha Smith) combined for 10 routines at the 2006 NCAA meet in Corvallis, Ore.

RETURNING ALL-AMERICANS

OSU returns all four gymnasts who have combined for six All-America honors. Tasha Smith earned second team All-America on vault in 2006 and was a first team member in 2007. Jami Lanz was a second team All-American on bars in 2007 and earned second team on the beam in 2008. Mandi Rodriguez earned first team honors on the vault in 2007 and Jen Kesler earned second team on the bars in 2008.

RODRIGUEZ CLAIMS REGIONAL TITLES

Junior Mandi Rodriguez staked a claim to two individual event titles at the NCAA Central Regional Championships. Rodriguez recorded a career-high tying 9.95 on the vault for the second meet in a row to tie for the event title. She added a 9.925 on the floor exercise to win the event outright. The titles give Rodriguez 11 vault wins and 10 floor wins in 2009. Rodriguez currently ranks No. 5 in the nation on both events.

OSU RANKED ON ALL FOUR EVENTS

Oregon State finished the regular season with all four of its individual lineups ranked among the top 12 in the nation. The Beavers are ranked No. 5 on balance beam, No. 8 on the uneven bars, No. 10 on the floor exercise and are No. 12 on vault.

OTHER BEAVERS IN THE RANKINGS ...

Several OSU gymnasts can be found ranked among the top 50 in the nation. On vault, Mandi Rodriguez ranks 5th in the nation (9.925 RQS) and Jami Lanz ranks 38th (9.865). Leslie Mak ranks 4th (9.915) and Jen Kesler is 8th on uneven bars (9.895). Laura-Ann Chong (9.870) ranks 27th, Lanz (9.865) is 29th, Mak (9.855) is 36th and Rodriguez (9.850) is 41st on the balance beam. Rodriguez (9.930) ranks 5th and Lanz (9.885) ranks 25th on the floor exercise. Rodriguez also ranks 7th in the all-around (39.480) while Lanz is 21st (39.335).

BEAVERS' BARS TEAM TALLIES NATION'S TOP SCORE

The Oregon State bars team was lights out at the Salbasgeon Suites Invitational against Pacific Northwest rivals Washington and Seattle Pacific. Three OSU gymnasts set or tied career-highs on the event to total a school record score 49.575 ... The lineup that night was: Olivia Vivian, 9.850; Mandi Rodriguez, 9.875; Jami Lanz, 9.925; Laura-Ann Chong, 9.875; Jen Kesler, 9.925 and Leslie Mak, 9.975 ... The previous school record on bars was 49.525, which was set at the 2003 Pac-10 Championships at UCLA.

PAC-10 GYMNAST OF THE YEAR = RODRIGUEZ

Junior Mandi Rodriguez was selected as the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year by a vote of the conference's head coaches prior to the Pac-10 Championship meet. Rodriguez is the third Oregon State gymnast to earn the award and the first since Chari Knight in 1994. Knight also won the award in 1992 and before her Joy Selig was honored in 1991.

RODRIGUEZ, KESLER, MAK CONQUER PAC-10

Mandi Rodriguez continued her incredible season at the 2009 Pac-10 Championships securing a pair of conference titles. Rodriguez tied her career-high with a score of 9.95 on the vault to earn the title of Pac-10 Champion. She also scored a 9.90 on the floor exercise to tie for top honors. Meanwhile, Jen Kesler and Leslie Mak each recorded scores of 9.90 on the uneven bars to each earn a share of the Pac-10 Championship on the event ... This is the second year in a row that OSU gymnasts have had a share of three Pac-10 titles. Last year, Tasha Smith (vault and floor) and Jami Lanz (beam) combined for three Pac-10 titles. Three conference championships was the most Oregon State had earned since 1999 when Megan Murphy-Barcroft (vault and beam), Danae Phillips (bars) and Lara Degenhardt (floor) combined to win four events.

FIVE OSU GYMNASTS EARN ALL-PAC-10 HONORS

Five Oregon State gymnasts received All-Pac-10 Conference honors when awards were announced recently. The all-conference gymnasts are Laura-Ann Chong, Jen Kesler, Jami Lanz, Leslie Mak and Mandi Rodriguez ... Lanz earned first honors in the all-around for the fourth time in her career ... Rodriguez also earned first team honors in the all-around for the first time. Rodriguez had previously earned first team accolades twice on vault and once on the floor exercise ... Kesler and Mak each earned their first all-conference honors as first team members on the uneven bars ... Chong also received all-conference recognition for the first time in her career earning second team status on the balance beam.

OREGON STATE

WEEKLY CONFERENCE HONORS

Oregon State gymnasts have accounted for seven Pac-10 awards in 2009 ... Mandi Rodriguez earned the Beavers' first award of the year (Special Performance of the Week) following OSU's home meet against California and Arkansas in which Rodriguez scored 9.975 on the floor exercise to set a career-high and to secure the win for the Beavers ... Two weeks later, Rodriguez (Gymnast of the Week) and Leslie Mak (Special Performance of the Week) swept the Pac-10 awards following the Utah meet. Rodriguez scored a career-high 39.500 in the all-around, a career-best 9.85 on the beam and also won the floor title. Meanwhile, Mak scored a personal-best, 9.95, on the bars and tied her previous best of 9.9 on the beam ... Mak followed up the next week with another stellar performance scoring 9.925 on the bars to share the event title with teammate Jen Kesler ... Last week Rodriguez was honored for the third time this season as she received the Special Performance of the Week after tying her season-high (9.925) on vault and adding a 9.95 on the floor to win both events against UCLA ... This week Rodriguez (GOW) and Mak (SPOW) swept the awards for the second time in 2009. Rodriguez scored a career-best 39.600 and added scores of 9.925 on vault and 9.95 on floor. Mak flirted with perfection scoring 9.975 on the bars and 9.925 on the beam.

RACKING UP THE INDIVIDUAL TITLES

Mandi Rodriguez now tallied 26 individual titles this season and has remains in fourth place on the all-time list at Oregon State with 47 career wins. In addition, her 26 titles sets a personal-high for wins in a season and is the fifth-most in a season by an OSU gymnast. Despite Rodriguez's season-long success, she still trails teammate Jami Lanz in the career wins department. Lanz ranks third in Beaver history having taken the top spot 48 times.

Pac-10 All-Academic Honorable Mention

ALL-ACADEMIC

Six OSU gymnasts received recognition for their work in the classroom when the Pac-10's All-Academic teams were announced recently. With two second team honorees and four honorable mentions, the Beavers tied for the second-most selections in the conference to Stanford (8). Kera Bolen and Laura-Ann Chong each received second team recognition and Brooke Barclay, Jereme Bigelow, Mandi Rodriguez and Whitney Watson earned honorable mention ... This is the second time Chong has earned second team honors while it is the first for Bolen. This year's honorable mention recognition marks the third such award for Barclay and second for Rodriguez and Watson. This is Bigelow's first all-academic award.

LANZ THE RECORD BREAKER

For nearly four years there has been a common theme when people discuss the value Jami Lanz has to the Oregon State gymnastics program — consistency. The thing her teammates, coaches, fans and media have come to expect is that Jami Lanz will perform every time there is a competition. Heading into the Pac-10 Championships, Lanz has performed in the all-around in all 55 meets of her career — 220 straight routines and she's hit 94% of them. Competing in the all-around in 55 straight meets is a school record.

PIRO ACCEPTED TO GRAD SCHOOL

Senior D'Anna Piro recently received wonderful news (Jan. 21) when she was admitted to Stanford's Graduate School of Business for the class of 2013. D'Anna will start school in the fall of 2011. While this may be the biggest academic moment of her life, academic awards are not new to her. D'Anna is a two-time Pac-10 All-Academic first team selection, has earned the NACGC/W (National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women) Scholastic All-American award four times and was selected was honored as an everyday champion at Oregon State in 2007. In addition, last year, D'Anna was selected as OSU's 2008 NASPE (National Association for Sport and Physical Education) Outstanding Major of the Year. D'Anna is a double-major in Business Administration and Exercise and Sport Science in Oregon State's Honor's College. On top of those academic endeavors, D'Anna also holds the title of president in OSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

EVERYDAY CHAMPIONS

The Oregon State gymnastics team has had two gymnasts recognized as OSU everyday champions during the 2009 season. Laura-Ann Chong was recognized the week of Jan. 26-Feb. 1 and Brooke Barclay received the honor the week of Feb. 23-Mar. 1. Chong and Barclay were recognized as everyday champions for their excellence on the competition floor as well as their accomplishments in the classroom and community. Go to osubeavers.com to see more about their accomplishments ... Oregon State University Athletics supports approximately 500 student-athletes who showcase grit, determination, teamwork, passion and drive in 17 sports. The "everyday champions" program was developed to prepare these student-athletes, who excel on the field and courts, for today's competitive environment after graduation ... The goal of the everyday champions program is to have OSU's student-athletes leave educated, confident, connected and well prepared for the personal and professional challenges that will face them throughout their lives. Everyday Beaver student-athletes excel on the playing field, in the classroom, as a teammate and in the community ... Throughout the year OSU recognizes many student-athletes, along with several alumni featured, in an attempt to highlight their extraordinary accomplishments.

PINK OUT BREAKFAST AND SILENT AUCTION

Earlier in the season, the OSU gymnastics program and the gymnastics booster club, the 10.0 Club, hosted the second annual "Pink Out" breakfast and silent auction. Over $6,500 was raised through the auction and official Pink Out t-shirt sales with the proceeds benefitting two local charities, W.I.S.H. (Women Investing in Samaritan Health) and Project H.E.R. (Help. Enlightenment. Resources.).

OSU SIGNS ANOTHER SOLID RECRUITING CLASS

The Oregon State gymnastics program has continued what has become a tradition of bringing in strong recruiting classes. This year head coach Tanya Chaplin has brought in three more student-athletes for the 2009-10 season. Leilani Alferos (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), Kelsi Blalock (Puyallup, Wash.) and Makayla Stambaugh (Antelope, Calif.) will join the Beavers in the fall ... Oregon State expects to add another gymnast during the current signing period as well ... Stambaugh, who trains at Byers Gymnastics Center, is one of the top recruits in the country. She is a former Elite level gymnast and is a two-time U.S. Junior National Team member. She was the 2008 national champion on balance beam, floor exercise and the all-around at Level 10 ... Alferos, who trains at Olympic Gymnastics Academy, brings power and grace and is expected to provide a great fit to the program. Her best gymnastics has yet to come, according to Chaplin ... Blalock, who trains at Gymnastics East, is a former club teammate of OSU sophomore Jen Kesler and is a former pupil of OSU assistant coach John Carney. She was a Junior Olympic National Team member in 2007 and is expected to play a major role for the Beavers next season.
