No. 7 Beavers Seek Pac-10 Title Saturday at Arizona

THE MEET ... No. 7 Oregon State (13-3) heads back to the desert for the 2010 Pac-10 Conference Championships hosted by Arizona. The championships will be held at McKale Center, Sat., Mar. 27 at 4 p.m.

MEDIA COVERAGE ... The Pac-10 Championships will be televised on a tape delay basis on FSN ... Live stats will be available at www.pac-10.org and at www.arizonawildcats.com.

ROTATION ORDER ... Oregon State has an interesting rotation to follow at the Pac-10 Championships beginning the meet on the floor exercise, the Beavers' best event. The draw means that the Beavers will finish the meet on a bye (with Washington and California) and will have to wait for the other teams to determine the outcome.

LAST YEAR AT PAC-10's... Oregon State stumbled out of the gate at the 2009 conference championships with a fall and two major wobbles on the balance beam. After getting the early jitters out of the way, OSU recovered with a 6-for-6 performance on the floor exercise including a career-best 9.875 for Leslie Mak and a 9.90 from Mandi Rodriguez, which tied for the conference title. On the vault, the Beavers scored a season-high team score of 49.325. Stephanie McGregor (9.80), Brooke Barclay (9.85) and Whitney Watson (9.875) each posted career-best scores to start the rotation. Rodriguez added a 9.95 to win the Pac-10 title. After three events, OSU was vying with UCLA for second place until Stanford struggled with a pair of falls on the floor exercise with the Beavers watching from the corral. With the door open, the Bruins, who led OSU by .125, the Beavers needed a strong finish. Jen Kesler and Mak tallied matching scores of 9.90 to tie for the event title and despite a big finish, the Beavers fell short for a second place finish.

Tanya Chaplin enters her 13th year leading the Oregon State gymnastics program on a course that ensures the Beavers remain among the top gymnastics programs in the nation for years to come. In 2009, Chaplin led OSU to its seventh trip to the NCAA Championships overall and fourth straight, under her direction.

With her supervision, 12 OSU gymnasts have earned 22 All-America honors and 11 gymnasts have combined for 16 Pac-10 titles. In addition, OSU gymnasts have earned 63 scholastic All-America honors.

Again in 2009, the squad was considered the most talented of Chaplin's tenure and the prognosticators were correct. OSU gymnasts brought home six All-America honors including two first team honors for Mandi Rodriguez (vault and floor).

In addition, Rodriguez won Pac-10 titles on vault and floor en route to being named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and Jen Kesler and Leslie Mak tied for the title on the bars.

The Beavers were ranked as high as No. 8, finished second at the Pac-10 Championships, second at the NCAA Central Region Championships and 11th at the NCAA Championships.

MILESTONE FOR MANDI ... Senior Mandi Rodriguez reached another career milestone recently when she scored a 9.90 on the balance beam at UCLA. The 9.90 on the beam is the highest score of her career on the apparatus and now gives her career-bests of 9.90 or better on all four events becoming just the six OSU gymnast to record a score of 9.90 or better on all four events in her career - Annie Campbell, Jami Lanz, Lindsay Nelson, Chelsea Plourde and Tanya Ricioli-Hebron.

RACKING UP THE INDIVIDUAL TITLES ... With three more individual titles last week against Kentucky, Mandi Rodriguez now has 21 event titles in 2010 - which ranks seventh on OSU's single season list. In addition, Rodriguez moved into third place on OSU's career wins list.

EVENT TITLES GALORE ... Oregon State began the season with a 9-0 record through the first six meets. During that streak the Beavers earned at least a share of every single individual event and all-around title! Over the last month of the season, of which OSU has been on the road four out of the last five weeks, the Beavers have continued to rack up shares of 12 more individual titles despite the travel and competing against seven top 25 teams, three of which are ranked among the top 10 ... Mandi Rodriguez and Becky Colvin have combined to win on vault in all 11 meets.

PACKING GILL ... As is usual during gymnastics season in Corvallis, fans arrived at Gill Coliseum in droves in 2010. The Oregon State gymnastics performed before 20,853 fans over the course of five home meets - an average of 4,171 per meet, which is the highest average since the Beavers brought in 4,800 fans per meet in 1998. Currently Oregon State unofficially ranks sixth in the nation in average attendance.

UNDERSTANDING THE RANKINGS ... Unlike many other collegiate athletic rankings, gymnastics rankings are not based on wins and losses or votes. Teams are ranked purely on their scores. At the beginning of the season, teams are ranked by their season average. Beginning the week of Feb. 22, teams and individual gymnasts will be ranked by a Regional Qualifying Score (RQS). An RQS is a formula based on a team's top six regular season scores (three of which are required to be from away meets). To calculate the RQS, the highest score is dropped and the remaining five scores are averaged.

UPDATES FROM THE PRACTICE GYM ... Freshman Kelsi Blalock, who sprained her ankle during warm-ups last month at California (2/7), has continued to work on "timers" this week in the gym in hopes of returning to the vault lineup. She will not compete this week ... Freshman Leilani Alferos has returned to practice after a bicycle accident two weeks ago (2/22).

BEAVERS ALL ACCESS ... The Oregon State gymnastics team was featured at the beginning of the season on Beavers All Access on FSN NW. The 30-minute television program can now be seen via Beaver Nation Online, the audio/visual service of www.osubeavers.com.

MORE MEDIA FOR THE BEAVS ... Senior Mandi Rodriguez was published in the Feb. 15 issue of Sports Illustrated's Faces In The Crowd ... sophomore Leslie Mak was recognized at Inside Gymnastics Magazine, Feb. 17.

PAC-10 HONORS OSU GYMNASTS ... Four Oregon State gymnasts have received the Pac-10 weekly awards in 2010 ... Makayla Stambaugh was named the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Week for the week of Jan. 18-24. Stambaugh won four individual titles, scoring what was then her career-high with a 39.500 in the all-around. Stambaugh added career-highs on vault (9.875) and bars (9.85) ... Mandi Rodriguez received Gymnast of the Week honors the very next week (Jan. 25-31) when she led the then-No. 6 Beavers past then-No. 5 Stanford, 196.225-195.775. Rodriguez scored 39.475 in the all-around and added a pair of 9.90's on the vault and floor to earn individual titles ... Becky Colvin kept the Beavers streak alive earning Pac-10 Special Performance of the Week during the week of Feb. 1-7. Colvin vaulted to a career-best 9.925 and the individual title at California as the Beavers topped the Bears 196.375-190.100 ... After just one week of missing out, the Beavers were given the nod again this week when Rodriguez received Special Performance of the Week honors. She scored a career-high 9.90 on the beam to win the individual title and set a career-high ... For good measure, Rodriguez earned Pac-10 recognition for the as the Pac-10 Special Performance of the Week for the fifth time in her career following OSU's meet against Kentucky. Rodriguez tied her career-high of 9.95 on the vault and added 9.925 on the floor to earn Pac-10 honors this week.

EVERYDAY CHAMPIONS ... The Oregon State gymnastics team has had three gymnasts recognized as OSU everyday champions during the 2010 season. Whitney Watson was recognized the week of Jan. 18-24, Stephanie McGregor received the honor the week of Jan. 25-31 and Leslie Mak was chosen for the week of Feb. 8-14. Watson, McGregor and Mak were recognized as everyday champions for their excellence on the competition floor as well as their accomplishments in the classroom and community. Go to osubeavers.com to see more about their accomplishments ... Oregon State University Athletics supports approximately 500 student-athletes who showcase grit, determination, teamwork, passion and drive in 17 sports. The "everyday champions" program was developed to prepare these student-athletes, who excel on the field and courts, for today's competitive environment after graduation ... the goal of the everyday champions program is to have OSU's student-athletes leave educated, confident, connected and well prepared for the personal and professional challenges that will face them throughout their lives. Everyday Beaver student-athletes excel on the playing field, in the classroom, as a teammate and in the community ... throughout the year OSU recognizes many student-athletes, along with several alumni featured, in an attempt to highlight their extraordinary accomplishments. Other current team members who have been everyday champions are: Mandi Rodriguez and Laura-Ann Chong.

TOP NOTCH GROUP OF FRESHMEN ... The departure of six seniors who combined to provide 10 routines at the NCAA Championships last year meant that several younger gymnasts would be needed to fill the void, fortunately it would appear that this year's freshman class should be prepared to fill that gap. Oregon State's freshman foursome was recently chosen as the No. 3 recruiting class of 2009 by CollegeGymFans.com. Leading the impressive class is two-time junior elite National Team member Makayla Stambaugh, who dominated Level 10 the last two years, winning back-to-back national titles in the all-around. Joining her is Kelsi Blalock, who had three straight top 10 all-around finishes at the national championships, Melanie Jones, who was an alternate to the 2008 Australian Olympic Team, and Leilani Alferos, who has also had impressive showings at the Level 10 championships and who the OSU coaching staff believes has her best gymnastics ahead of her.

PINK OUT SUCCESS ... The OSU gymnastics program and The Corvallis Clinic hosted the fifth annual Pink Out meet Jan. 29 against Stanford and Seattle Pacific. The goal of the meet is to raise money and awareness for breast and cervical cancer awareness with a portion of the proceeds benefitting The Corvallis Clinic's Project H.E.R. (Help. Enlightenment. Resources.). A crowd of 6,143 cheered the Beavers to victory in a fantastic gymnastics meet - it was the largest crowd for a regular season meet since 1997 ... The following morning the Beavers' booster club, the 10.0 Club, hosted the third annual Pink Out Breakfast and Silent Auction in the Club Level of Reser Stadium. More than 180 supporters joined the team and raised more than $9,000 in all for Project H.E.R.
