BEAVER NATION ONLINE

For the second consecutive season, Oregon State Athletics web-casted all of the Beavers' home meets in 2011. The webcasts are available via Beaver Nation Online, the audio/visual home of OSU Athletics. Former OSU gymnast, Heather (Bennett) Faucera, a two-time All-American on the uneven bars in 1995 and '96, provided the analysis.

Check out OSU's daily gymnastics interviews from the championships on BNO for free.

Closing the Book on the 2011 Gymnastics Season

THE SEASON

It was another step forward for the Oregon State gymnastics team (29-9) in the quest for the ultimate prize. The 2011 season ended with an eighth place finish at the NCAA Championships for the second straight year and along the way the Beavers chalked up their first Pac-10 Championship title since 1996 and added their second regional title in four years as well ... Four gymnasts - Jen Kesler, Leslie Mak, Makayla Stambaugh and Olivia Vivian - garnered All-America honors and each qualified to the Individual Event Finals, tying for the most in school history. The foursome accounted for six first team All-America awards ... The uneven bars lineup ended the season ranked No. 1 in the nation and backed it up with the highest team score at the NCAA Championships in any session. Kesler, Stambaugh and Vivian each reached event finals and finished second, tied for third and tied for sixth respectively ... Key highlights for the 2011 Beavers included Mak being named the Pac-10 Conference and NCAA West Region Gymnast of the Year; Tanya Chaplin earned Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Tanya and Michael Chaplin received West Region Coach of the Year honors.

RETURNING FOR 2012

Oregon State graduates only two seniors - Becky Colvin and Jen Kesler - accounting for three routines, from the 2011 squad. With 10 scholarship athletes expected to return and expected return to health from nagging injuries for Kelsi Blalock and Melanie Jones, as well as the addition of incoming freshmen Chel-sea Tang and Cerise Witherby, the Beavers should be prepared to fill the holes left behind.

RETURNING ALL-AMERICANS

OSU returns three gymnasts who have combined for six All-America honors for the 2012 season. Junior-to-be Makayla Stambaugh is now a three-time All-American, twice earning first team honors on the floor exercise (finishing 8th in 2011) and once on the uneven bars, where she finished tied for third this year. Senior-to-be Leslie Mak earned a pair of All-America First Team honors this year in the all-around and on the balance beam. Senior-to-be Olivia Vivian, who was ranked No. 1 in the nation on the bars for several weeks this season, earned the first All-American award of her career and finished tied for sixth on the bars in individual finals.

LAST TIME ON THE COMPETITION FLOOR

Oregon State had a solid, but not spectacular, performance at the NCAA Championships. The Beavers posted the meet's highest score as a bars lineup (49.400). But the Beavers finished fifth in the session with just one-tenth of a point separating them from an elusive trip to the Super Six. Leslie Mak had an excellent meet, as usual, scoring 39.350 in the all-around to tie for third. Jen Kesler tallied a season-high 9.90 on the bars to tie teammates Makayla Stambaugh, Olivia Vivian and three others for first on the event to advance to the Individual Event Finals. Freshman Brittany Harris and sophomore Kelsi Blalock (who was practically a freshman after missing most of her first year due to injury) performed well in their first meets on a podium with each hitting all three of their routines. Blalock just missed becoming an All-American on the vault with a team-leading 9.875 while Harris tallied her highest score of 9.85 on the bars. Stambaugh posted a pair of 9.90 scores on bars and floor exercise to advance to compete on Sunday ... Four gymnasts - Kesler, Mak, Stambaugh and Vivian - reached Individual Event Finals the most since four accomplished the feat in 1994.

TANYA CHAPLIN

Head Coach • 14 Seasons

Tanya Chaplin recently completed her 14th year leading the Oregon State gymnastics program on a course that ensures the Beavers remain among the top programs in the nation for years to come. In 2010 and 2011, Chaplin led the Beavers to back-to-back eighth place finishes at the NCAA Championships, the best placings since her arrival at OSU in 1998. She has led the Beavers to nine trips to the NCAA Championships under her direction and six straight. Over the course of her 14 years in Corvallis, 16 OSU gymnasts have earned 34 All-America honors and 13 gymnasts have combined for 21 Pac-10 titles. In addition, OSU gymnasts have earned 67 scholastic All-America honors.

It has become a custom at Oregon State, since Chaplin's arrival, that each season the team is more talented than the year before. Outstanding recruiting classes continue to arrive in Corvallis to meet the challenge of taking OSU to the next level.

The 2011 season has brought with it new challenges and with last year's eighth place finish at nationals the expectations have been even greater. Junior Leslie Mak has enjoyed a breakout season earning Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and NACGC West Region Gymnast of the Year honors. Mak won the Pac-10 title in the all-around and on the beam and tied with teammates Makayla Stambaugh and Olivia Vivian for the conference title on the bars. The Beavers won the Pac-10 title for the first time during her tenure and followed by capturing the NCAA Corvallis Regional title en route to the fourth seed at the NCAA Championships this week.

The 2010 squad reached new heights under Chaplin's direction. The Beavers were led by Mandi Rodriguez, who collected three All-American accolades including a third place finish on vault to finish her career with seven in all, and fellow senior Laura-Ann Chong, who put together her finest season earning second All-America on bars and beam. Joining them was Stambaugh, who burst upon the scene, earning Pac-10 Freshman of the Year honors - the third FOY since Chaplin's arrival. She was rewarded for her team's efforts with the fourth Pac-10 Coach of the Year award of her career.

In 14 years as head coach, Chaplin's career record entering the season stood at 217-106-1 in the regular season and 274-165-1 overall. During her time at OSU, she has become well-known as one of the best in the business at choreographing her gymnasts' floor and beam routines putting her team in the best possible position to entertain the crowd as well as the judges.

Prior to moving to Corvallis, Chaplin served as the top assistant coach with the University of Washington gymnastics program for seven years. During that time, the Huskies emerged as one of the top programs in the nation. In 1997, the Huskies placed second at the NCAA West Regional and qualified for the NCAA Championships for the second time in four years.

Chaplin, formerly Tanya Service, went to Washington from her alma mater, UCLA, where she was an assistant coach and standout gymnast.

During her athletic career at UCLA, Chaplin held six school records and received six All-America honors. She was named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and UCLA all-university Athlete of the Year in 1987 and 1989.

In addition to her success as a gymnast for the Bruins, Chaplin was a three-time member of the U.S. National Team. She competed at the 1983 World Championships in Budapest, Hungary, where she was a finalist in the all-around competition. She also won a silver medal on floor exercise at the 1987 Olympic Festival and competed in the 1984 Olympic Trials.

Chaplin also served as chair of the USA Gymnastics Athletes Advisory Council from 1996 to 1998, and she spent nine years serving as an athlete representative, working with USA Gymnastics and serving as a voice for the athletes at the 1992 and 1996 Olympic Games.

Chaplin, a native of St. Charles, Mo., graduated from UCLA in 1990 with a degree in political science. Her husband, Michael, is also in his 14th season in the role of associate head coach at OSU. The Chaplins have one daughter, Alana.

IN THE RANKINGS

All four of Oregon State's lineups finished the season ranked in the nation's top 10. The Beavers were ranked 8th on vault (49.215 RQS), 1st on the uneven bars (49.380), 7th on the balance beam (49.115) and 10th on the floor exercise (49.160). In addition, several OSU gymnasts were ranked among the top 25 in the nation: Leslie Mak tied for No. 1 on the beam (9.910), No. 9 on the bars (9.900) and tied for No. 8 in the all-around (39.385); Olivia Vivian tied for No. 3 on the bars (9.920); Britney Ranzy tied for 6th on the vault (9.905); and Makayla Stambaugh tied for 13th on the bars (9.885) and tied for 22nd on the floor (9.875).

WE'RE NO. 1

The Oregon State uneven bars lineup finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation. The Beavers proved their worth at the NCAA Championships when they posted a meet-high 49.400 score as a team. Three OSU gymnasts qualified to the Individual Event Finals after tying for first in the evening session with scores of 9.90. Jen Kesler, Makayla Stambaugh and Olivia Vivian became first team All-Americans - the first time in OSU history it had three first team All-Americans on the event in the same season. Kesler finished second, Stambaugh tied for third and Vivian tied for sixth in event finals. In addition, Leslie Mak finished the year ranked ninth in the nation with an RQS of 9.90 ... On top of all that, Mak ended the year tied for No. 1 in the nation on the on the beam with an RQS of 9.910.

PAC-10 CHAMPIONS

Oregon State hit all 24 of its routines at the final Pac-10 Championships meet en route to a dominating performance and a season-high score of 197.200. The Beavers earned the highest marks on the bars (49.425), beam (49.350) and floor (49.125) and tied for the top score on the vault (49.300). In addition, OSU gymnasts Leslie Mak, Makayla Stambaugh and Kelsi Blalock went 1-2-3 in the all-around to lead the Beavers to their first conference title since 1996 and fifth overall ... as UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field put it, "Oregon State was the best team in the house tonight. We got beat by a beat team tonight."

PAC-10 CHAMPIONS II

Junior Leslie Mak enjoyed a career-night at the Pac-10 Championships posting career-best 39.525 in the all-around to win the Pac-10 title and added a career-high 9.95 on the beam to win the event title as well. In addition, Mak tied teammates Olivia Vivian and Makayla Stambaugh as well as three other gymnasts with a 9.90 on the bars to share the Pac-10 title on the apparatus ... it is the second time Mak has tied for the Pac-10 title having done the same in 2009 when she tied Jen Kesler ... it is the third time in four years an OSU gymnast has won the conference beam title (Laura-Ann Chong - 2010 & Jami Lanz - 2008).

PAC-10 GYMNAST OF THE YEAR

At the conclusion of the Pac-10 Championships Leslie Mak was announced as the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year. The award is determined by a vote of the conference's head coaches. Mak, who was an outstanding three event athlete for the Beavers in her first two years, added vault to her repertoire in 2011 and has performed in the all-around in all 11 of OSU's meets this season. To date, Mak has hit 43 out of 44 routines and has established or matched career-highs on all four events plus the all-around. Mak has won 19 event titles in 2011 including a dominant performance in the all-around at the Pac-10 Championships scoring a career-best 39.525 ... Mak is the fourth gymnast in OSU history to garner Gymnast of the Year honors joining Beaver icons Joy Selig (1991), Chari Knight (1992 & '94) and Mandi Rodriguez (2009) ... With the Pac-10 expanding to the Pac-12 Conference next season, Mak will go down as the last Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year. Ironically, head coach Tanya (Service) Chaplin was the original Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year in 1987.

PAC-10 COACH OF THE YEAR ... AGAIN

Head coach Tanya Chaplin was chosen by her peers as the Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second year in a row and the fifth time in her career. Chaplin's team, which battled a variety of minor injuries during the fall, rounded into shape at midseason and is peaking at the right time of year. In the weeks leading up to the Pac-10 Championships the Beavers defeated three top 10 teams including then-No. 10 UCLA, then-No. 2 Stanford and then-No. 6 Utah - the first time OSU has accomplished the feat since 1992. Chaplin's Beavers continued their hot streak with a season-best performance at Pac-10 Championships and won the conference title for the first time in her tenure.

ALL-PAC-10 TEAM

Seven Oregon State gymnasts combined for 10 All-Pac-10 Conference honors when the awards were announced last Wednesday. OSU's all-conference gymnasts are Kelsi Blalock, Becky Colvin, Jen Kesler, Leslie Mak, Britney Ranzy, Makayla Stambaugh and Olivia Vivian ... Mak earned first team All-Pac-10 in the all-around after earning all-conference on beam in 2010 and on beam in 2009. Stambaugh received first team recognition on the floor for the second year in a row and on the bars for the first time. Kesler earned second team honors on the bars and beam - she previously earned first team on bars in 2009. Colvin garnered second team all-conference on the vault for the second year in a row ... These are the first all-conference awards for Blalock, Ranzy and Vivian. Blalock and Ranzy earned first team honors on the vault while Vivian received first team on the bars and beam.

ALL-ACADEMIC

Four Oregon State gymnasts were recognized for their work in the classroom when the Pac-10 All-Academic team was announced last week. Stephanie McGregor earned first team All-Academic honors for the second year in a row while Leslie Mak and Olivia Vivian were named to the second team. Vivian was a first team selection in 2010 and Mak a second teamer. Melanie Jones was named honorable mention.

CHAPLIN REACHES MILESTONES

Head coach Tanya Chaplin earned the 200th regular season win of her career early in the season against Ohio State with a 195.925-193.300 victory over the Buckeyes ... More recently with the win at Pac-10 Championships, Chaplin moved past Jim Turpin to become the winningest coach in OSU history during the regular season with a record of 217-106-1 (.670). She remains second in school history in overall wins with an overall record of 274-165-1 (.623). Turpin tallied 317 victories from 1986-97.

PAC-10 HONORS OSU GYMNASTS

Oregon State gymnasts accounted for four Pac-10 weekly awards in 2011 ... Olivia Vivian earned the Beavers' first award of the year (Pac-10 Special Performance of the Week) following the opening week of the season. Vivian nailed her bars routine to score a career-best 9.95 and win the event title at the Pac-10 Showcase. Earlier in the weekend, Vivian also earned top honors on the bars with a 9.875 in OSU's home dual win over LSU ... Following Week 2, Leslie Mak and Vivian swept the weekly honors with Mak earning the first Pac-10 Gymnast of the Week honor of her career and Vivian earning her second Special Performance of the Week award for the week of Jan. 10-16. Mak scored 39.100, exceeding the 39-point mark for the third meet in a row, en route to winning the all-around as well as the beam title (9.925) in Oregon State's victory over then-No. 15 Ohio State. Vivian meanwhile topped her career-high from the previous week by rocking her bars routine to the tune of 9.975, including a 10.0 from the head judge ... Following Week 9, Makayla Stambaugh was awarded the second Pac-10 Gymnast of the Week of her career. Stambaugh, competing in the all-around for the first time since the season's opening week, tied her career-high with a 39.525 to help lead the Beavers to their first 197-point meet in two years. In addition, Stambaugh tied her career-high on vault with a 9.875 and set season-highs on beam (9.825) and floor (9.925) in helping Oregon State to halt Stanford's undefeated season.

TO BE THE BEST, YOU'VE GOT TO BEAT THE BEST

Oregon State coaches have worked diligently in recent years to create a schedule in which the gymnasts compete against the strongest competition possible in an effort to grow accustomed to postseason-type pressure. In 2011, CollegeGymFans.com calculated OSU to have the nation's most difficult strength of schedule. The Beavers faced preseason Top 25 teams 20 times this year, including preseason No. 1 UCLA four times (Pac-10 Showcase - 1/9, vs. UCLA - 1/28, IGI Chicago Style Invitational - 2/11, and Pac-10 Championships - 3/19). In addition, the Beavers face current No. 2 Stanford four times (Pac-10 Showcase - 1/9, IGI Chicago Style Invitational - 2/11, at California - 3/6, and Pac-10 Championships - 3/19).

"LES" IS MORE

Leslie Mak won 22 event titles in 2011 - which tied for sixth on OSU's single season list. In addition, Mak moved into a tie for sixth place on OSU's career wins list with 33.

MAK ATTACK

In OSU's season opening meet, Leslie Mak was listed in the vault lineup. Some might have thought it was a mistake on the scoreboard but then she corrected the unbelievers with an incredible vault and a score of 9.875 - a score that tied for the event title. The oddity was that Mak hadn't performed a competitive vault in four years. During her club days in high school, Mak injured her elbow and never seriously trained the event again until this year ... Mak's addition to the vault lineup puts her in the all-around competition as well, which she won against LSU. ... In addition to Mak's inclusion in the vault lineup, she has continued to excel in her other events and was the No. 1 ranked gymnast on the beam for four weeks at midseason before regaining a share of the top spot at the end of the season. She finished tied for seventh in the all-around at the NCAA Championships.

MACK ATTACK II

Last year, Makayla Stambaugh (Mack) was named as the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. This year a back injury hampered her gymnastics in the early going. However, in early March at California, Stambaugh was re-inserted into the beam lineup for the first time since the season's first weekend. Stambaugh responded with a season-high 9.825 to tie for the event title. Coupled with an overall outstanding meet, Stambaugh tied her career-high of 39.525 in the all-around to win the competition and secure the Pac-10's Gymnast of the Week award. She added a season-high on the floor (9.925) and tied her career-best on the vault (9.875) at Cal. Stambaugh finished the season by tying for third on the bars and took eighth on the floor.

CAPTAINS

Senior Becky Colvin and junior Leslie Mak were chosen by their peers to lead them throughout the 2011 campaign.

2013 NCAA REGIONALS

The NCAA Women's Gymnastics Committee announced Tuesday the regional and championship sites for 2012 and 2013. Oregon State has been selected to host an NCAA Regional at Gill Coliseum, April 6, 2013. The 2013 regional will mark the 14th time in history that Oregon State has hosted the event.

EVERYDAY CHAMPIONS

Senior Jen Kesler and junior Olivia Vivian were selected as an everyday champions from the gymnastics team for the 2011 season. Kesler represented the team during the week of Jan. 10-16 while Vivian was the everyday champion the week of Jan. 24-31. Other current OSU gymnasts to have been honored include Leslie Mak ('10) and Stephanie McGregor ('10). Everyday champions are recognized for their excellence on the competition floor as well as their achievements in the classroom and community. Go to osubeavers.com to learn more about their accomplishments ... Oregon State University Athletics supports approximately 500 student-athletes who showcase grit, determination, teamwork, passion and drive in 17 sports. The "everyday champions" program was developed to prepare these student-athletes, who excel on the field and courts, for today's competitive environment after graduation ... the goal for the everyday champions program is to have OSU's student-athletes leave educated, confident, connected and well prepared for the personal and professional challenges that will face them throughout their lives. Everyday Beaver student-athletes excel on the playing field, in the classroom, as a teammate and in the community ... throughout the year OSU recognizes many student-athletes, along with several alumni featured, in an attempt to highlight their extraordinary accomplishments.

ANOTHER STRONG CLASS OF FRESHMEN

Oregon State fans have become accustomed to seeing gymnasts clad in orange and black perform wondrous feats on a regular basis and with each season comes a set of new faces to be excited about. 2011 should be no different according to CollegeGymFans.com which has ranked OSU's incoming freshman class as the eight best in the nation. Britney Ranzy, a senior international elite and competed at the Olympic Trials, may be the best known but she's hardly alone. Brittany Harris is coming off of two straight Top 10 all-around finishes at the Level 10 national championships. Amanda Schulberg, who missed the 2010 nationals meet, finished second in the all-around in 2009. Also joining the Beavers is Hannah Casey who tied for 10th on the uneven bars at last year's national meet.

ADD TWO TO BEAVER NATION

In November, the Oregon State gymnastics staff proudly announced the addition of two new gymnasts to Beaver Nation. Chelsea Tang (Eugene, Ore.) and Cerise Witherby (Huntington Beach, Calif.) will join the program for the 2012 season and are scheduled to enroll at OSU in September ... Tang, the reigning Junior Olympic national champion on the uneven bars, finished first in the all-around at the Metroplex Challenge and at the 2010 Region 2 Championships earned a second place finish on the vault and first on the beam. Tang plans to pursue a pre-medicine degree at OSU ... Witherby finished third in the all-around at the 2010 J.O. National Championships and made the J.O. National Team. She also finished third on the beam and fourth on the vault at the championship meet in 2010. Witherby plans to study veterinary medicine at Oregon State.
