TARRAH BEYSTER (1997-00) — RETIRED JERSEY #00

An outstanding pitcher and power hitter, Tarrah Beyster is a four-time NFCA/Louisville Slugger All-American and became the first Oregon State softball player to earn first team All-America status.

Beyster, a native of San Diego, Calif., is a four-time All-Pacific-10 Conference all-star and earned Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors seven times in her career. She is one of just two Pac-10 players to earn both Pitcher and Player of the Week honors in the same week, a feat she accomplished as a sophomore.

Beyster finished her career with 24 Oregon State school records, including four pitching records - wins, innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games - as well as four offensive records including runs batted in, home runs, batting average and walks. She also holds numerous single-season records for the Beavers.

Beyster has a .382 career batting average, scored 93 runs, tallied 223 hits, 143 RBI, 52 home runs and an NCAA record 211 walks. As a pitcher, she totaled a 1.72 ERA and won 91 games while striking out 694 batters.

In her four years at Oregon State, Beyster helped lead the Beavers to their first ever NCAA Regional Tournament appearance in 1999 and a return trip in 2000.

A two-time Oregon State University Female Athlete of the Year, Beyster earned the prestigious honor of being named the NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Oregon at the conclusion of 2000.

A consummate student/athlete, Beyster is a two-time Pac-10 Conference All-Academic selection and a two-time GTE/CoSIDA academic honoree.

With her dedication and desire, Oregon State softball and Oregon State University has gained recognition nationally. In honor of this, Beyster became the first Oregon State softball player and just the second Oregon State female athlete to have her jersey retired.

In a ceremony on May 12, 2001, Beyster's number double-zero (#00) jersey was retired between games of a double-header against University of California.

* Please note that Brianne McGowan (2004-07) now holds the Oregon State all-time strikeout record with 852.

* Veronica Nelson of University of California now holds the NCAA record for bases on balls.

OSU SOFTBALL COMPLEX HIGHLIGHTS

The Opener

Oregon State opened the OSU Softball Complex in fine fashion as the Beavers knocked off top-ranked UCLA, 2-1 on April 20, 2001. The win marked just the fifth ever for Oregon State against the Bruins. OSU was one of just four teams to beat UCLA during the season as the Bruins ended the year with a 62-6 record and finished as Women's College World Series runner-up.

The Hit (1)

With the score knotted 3-3 with two outs in the bottom of the seventh inning against in-state rival University of Oregon on April 24, 2001, OSU sophomore Steph Adams sent a full-count pitch over the left field wall to give the Beavers a dramatic 4-3 victory and season sweep of the Ducks.

The Hit (2)

Oregon State rallied from a 2-0 deficit against eventual World Series Champion, University of California, behind a big hit from junior outfielder Steph Adams. Adams blasted a sixth inning 3-run homer over the left field fence to give the Beavers a 3-2 victory against the No. 6 Bears on April 5, 2002.

The Pitch (1)

Oregon State hurler Crystal Draper became the first pitcher in OSU history to throw three no-hitters in her career when she blanked Portland State University on May 2, 2001. The Beavers needed just six innings to record the 8-0 victory against the Vikings.

The Pitch (2)

Oregon State junior hurler Monica Hoffman became the first pitcher in OSU history to throw four no-hitters in her career when she blanked Portland State University on April 22, 2003. Similar to Crystal Draper's no-no against the Viks in 2001, the Beavers needed just six innings to record the 9-0 victory. Five of Oregon State's 10 hits in the game were home runs, including a pair of long balls from Adrienne Alo.

The Inning

Oregon State rallied to score two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning and upset No. 6 ranked University of Washington, 2-1, on May 3, 2002. Third baseman Clare Burnum led-off the frame with her 17th double of the season. Shelly Prochaska's single through the right side scored Burnum to tie the game. With the bases loaded and one out, junior Jessica King belted a line drive into the left-center field gap to plate Michelle Chariton for the game-winner.

The Run

Oregon State finished the 2001 regular season with a 1-0, 9-inning, victory against No. 6 California on May 12. Senior Shawna Feldt, playing the final game of her career in Corvallis, scored the game-winner after a leadoff double, and was tackled by her teammates at home plate. The run was the 100th of Feldt's career, making her the all-time leader in runs scored for Oregon State.

The Single

Oregon State used a two-out 8th inning single up the middle from sophomore shortstop Mia Longfellow to earn a dramatic 2-1 victory against No. 7 ranked UCLA in the April 1, 2005 Pac-10 opener. The victory was just the seventh in school history for the Beavers against the defending NCAA National Champion Bruins and extended Oregon State's school record winning streak to 16 games.

The Grand Slam

Voted the "Best Performance" by any Oregon State sport during the 2005 school year, OSU's dramatic 4-0 home finale victory against No. 2 ranked University of Arizona on May 1, 2005 was a record-setting outing. Junior catcher Lisa Allen belted a sixth inning bases loaded two-out full-count pitch over the centerfield fence for her first career grand slam and sophomore pitcher Brienne McGowan amassed a career-high 12 strikeouts as the No. 8 ranked Beavers stunned the Wildcats. Oregon State won the season series against Arizona for the first time in program history and earned its first victory against the Wildcats in Corvallis since 1989. Little would OSU know - until the final day of the season - but that victory against Arizona gave Oregon State the tie-breaker in the Pac-10 Conference championship and the Beavers earned the Pac-10's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

The Winning Streak

No. 7 ranked Oregon State won its school record 28th consecutive game - the longest streak in the nation since 2002 - by upsetting No. 3 ranked University of Arizona by a 2-1 score on March 31, 2006. The Beavers won their second straight Pac-10 opener and earned their second straight victory over eventual World Series Champion Arizona - a first in program history. The balanced OSU offense had seven players pick up hits in the game and All-American pitcher Brienne McGowan improved to 16-1 on the season.

The Postseason Opener

In the first ever NCAA postseason game hosted by Oregon State, the No. 7 ranked Beavers rallied for a 2-1 seventh inning victory over Nevada in the May 19, 2006 Corvallis Regional. OSU pitcher Brienne McGowan struck out 10 batters and Cambria Miranda ripped her 15th home run of the season, but it was Adrienne Alo's ground ball that slid under the Nevada shortstop's glove that plated the winning run.

The World Series Clincher

With their backs against the wall, No. 7 ranked Oregon State swept a double-header - 3-0 and 1-0 - against No. 6 ranked California in the NCAA Super Regional on May 28, 2006. The victories allowed OSU to clinch its first ever berth in the NCAA Women's College World Series. Oregon State scored three of its four runs on the day in the opening inning of play, with senior Vanessa Iapala's sacrifice fly plating the lone run in the title contest. Beaver pitcher Brienne McGowan threw every inning in the shutout victories and finished with nine strikeouts in the night-cap.
