OREGON STATE
WISCONSIN

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Sept. 8, 2012

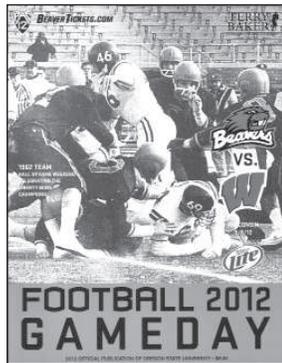

Weather — 64 degrees; Wind 13 mph W, Partly Sunny

In what many termed as the biggest non-conference home game in Oregon State football history, the Beavers' defense put on a show that will be remembered for a very long time. OSU stymied No. 13 Wisconsin and Heisman Trophy-candidate Montee Ball for much of the afternoon as the Beavers earned a 10-7 victory.

Wisconsin, in danger of being shut out for the first time since 1997, pieced together a 64-yard drive to get on the board with 1:31 to play. The drive was aided by a pass interference call on the Beavers, but the Badgers were in no position to turn down the free yardage. Wisconsin quarterback Danny O'Brien capped the drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to bring Wisconsin back to within one score.

With no timeouts remaining, Wisconsin appeared to recover the onside kick. After a video review, however, it was determined that a Badger touched the ball prior to it traveling the required 10 yards.

OSU killed the clock and Wisconsin's 33-game regular-season non-conference winning streak. The Beavers did it by controlling the ball and stuffing Ball and the Badgers. OSU held the ball for 35:35 while outgaining Wisconsin, 354-207. Ball finished with just 65 yards rushing as the Beavers did not allow him to break their outside containment. Ball also did not score a touchdown for the first time in 22 games.

The Beavers' touchdown came on their first drive of the second half. After converting just 2-of-9 third downs in the first half, Oregon State had two crucial third down completions to sustain the drive. Sean Mannion connected with Markus Wheaton for 18 yards on a 3rd-and-7 from the OSU 17 yard line. After being flagged on a false start to force a 3rd-and-12, Mannion hit Brandin Cooks in the back of the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown strike. Cooks had six catches for 80 yards, while Wheaton led the way with eight catches for 87 yards.

Ryan Murphy (25, below) made a third quarter interception to help secure the lead for the Beavers. Brandin Cooks (7, right) scored the game's lone touchdown on a 20-yard reception from Sean Mannion.

GAME TWO — OREGON STATE AT #19 UCLA

OREGON STATE
UCLA

The Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif. • Sept. 22, 2012

Weather — 88 degrees; Partly Cloudy

Sean Mannion passed for a career-high 379 yards and two touchdowns, Oregon State put the clamps on No. 19 UCLA's offense, and the Beavers opened their Pac-12 Conference season by topping the Bruins 27-20.

The victory was the 74th at OSU for coach Mike Riley, matching the school record set by Lon Stiner, the Beavers' coach from 1933-48. Riley is in his 12th year with OSU.

Oregon State's Markus Wheaton had nine receptions for 150 yards. Brandin Cooks had six catches for 175 yards, and Storm Woods rushed for 96 yards on 21 carries.

Trailing 17-10, the Bruins blew two scoring chances in the third quarter. First, they failed to convert a fourth-and-2 at the Oregon State 35-yard line after Anthony Barr forced a fumble by Mannion at the Beavers 43 and Tevin McDonald recovered.

The Bruins got another chance when Stan McKay intercepted Mannion's pass at the Beavers 48 on the next play, but they were forced to punt.

The Beavers then moved 88 yards on 13 plays to take a 24-10 lead, scoring on a 2-yard run by Storm Woods one play after a pass interference penalty against Sheldon Price on third-and-goal.

UCLA responded by getting a 1-yard sneak from Brett Hundley that capped a 75-yard drive and made it 24-17 with 14:01 to play. OSU got its 10-point lead back on Trevor Romaine's 17-yard field goal with 9:33 left.

The Bruins had a chance to get within seven points again, but Ka'i Fairbairn was wide right on a 42-yard field goal with 7:37 remaining. Fairbairn kicked a 35-yarder with 1:47 left, but Oregon State recovered UCLA's onside kick and ran out all but the final five seconds.

Early in the second quarter, Brandin Cooks (7, below) took this short pass and turned upfield - 75 yards later he'd hit paydirt to take the lead for good against the Bruins. Scott Crichton (95, right) led the defense recording six tackles including two sacks of the Bruins' quarterback.

GAME THREE — #18 OREGON STATE AT ARIZONA

OREGON STATE
ARIZONA

38
35

Arizona Stadium
Tucson, Ariz. • Sept. 29, 2012

Weather — 86 degrees; Wind 9 mph W, Clear w/ full moon

Sean Mannion passed for 433 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winner to Connor Hamlett from nine yards out with 1:17 remaining in the fourth quarter, to help send the 18th-ranked Oregon State football team to a 38-35 win over Arizona. The win sent head coach Mike Riley to his 75th all-time win at OSU, surpassing Lon Stiner for the most in school history.

The sophomore completed 29-of-45 attempts and found Markus Wheaton for touchdown strikes of 2 and 20 yards, respectively, while the senior receiver caught 10 passes overall for 166 yards. For the second consecutive week, he was joined by Brandin Cooks at the 100-yard receiving plateau - Cooks had 149 yards on nine catches.

The Beavers' ground game got going in a big way in the win, with Storm Woods on the strength of 29 carries for 161 yards. The redshirt freshman put the Beavers up 24-21 in the third quarter with a 1-yard touchdown rush.

The Beavers totaled 613 yards of total offense, which, in itself is notable as it stands as the sixth-best single-game output in OSU history, and the most since the team gained 654 yards against Arizona in 2005.

Mannion's final touchdown strike of the game - which ended as Oregon State's sixth straight win over the Wildcats in Tucson - left 1:17 on the clock, forcing the team's defense to make a stand. That's just what the "D" did.

Rashaad Reynolds picked off Arizona quarterback Matt Scott on 1st-and-10 from the Wildcats' 44. It capped an impressive defensive night for Reynolds, whose five pass breakups in the first half tied Dennis Weathersby's school record.

The win sent the Beavers to a 3-0 record; it's the first time since 2000 Oregon State ended the month of September with a perfect mark.

Storm Woods (24, below) enjoyed a breakout game in Tucson rushing for 161 yards and a touchdown. Sean Mannion (4, right) threw for 433 yards and three touchdowns including the game-winner to Connor Hamlett with just over a minute remaining in the game.

GAME FOUR — #14 OREGON STATE VS. WASHINGTON STATE

OREGON STATE
WASHINGTON STATE

19
6

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Oct. 68, 2012

Weather — 77 degrees; Wind 7 mph N, Sunny

Senior Jordan Poyer became the first Oregon State player to intercept three passes in a game in almost nine years as the Beavers stymied Washington State on their way to a 19-6 victory at Reser Stadium in front of a school-record crowd of 46,579.

The win moves Oregon State to 4-0 (3-0 Pac-12) on the year, the first time it has started a season with four-straight wins since 2002 and only the fifth time in the last 73 years.

Oregon State's defense fed off of that home crowd in keeping the Cougars out of the end zone, forcing five turnovers and holding them to just 20 yards rushing on the day. Fifteen of those 20 yards came on a Carl Winston carry late in the fourth quarter. The last time OSU kept a team from scoring a touchdown in a game was against Pittsburgh in the 2008 Sun Bowl.

The teams traded field goals in the second, with Trevor Romaine's 24-yarder with 2:51 remaining pushing the Beavers into a 6-3 halftime advantage after the teams traded turnovers on three consecutive possessions within a two-minute span. Senior Rudolf Fifita recovered his first career fumble at the WSU 34-yard line, but Sean Mannion was picked off three plays later as lineman loane Gauta rumbled 38 yards on the return into OSU territory. But just two plays later, senior safety Anthony Watkins squashed the threat with an interception of his own.

Those two turnovers, combined with Poyer's three picks, combined to give the Beavers five on the day. He wasn't the only star on defense, though. Sophomore defensive end Scott Crichton tallied three sacks, becoming the first Beaver to pull off that feat since Stephen Paea against UCLA on Oct. 31, 2009.

Jordan Poyer (14, below) intercepted Washington State quarterbacks three times and was named the Walter Camp co-Defensive Back of the Week for his efforts. Markus Wheaton (2, right) scored the game's first touchdown in the third quarter and led the Beavers with nine catches for 95 yards.

GAME FIVE — #10 OREGON STATE AT BYU

OREGON STATE

LaVell Edwards Stadium
Provo, Utah • Oct. 13, 2012

Weather — 54 degrees; Wind: variable, Cloudy

Never mind if Cody Vaz hadn't taken a snap since 2010, or started a game since he was in high school.

The Oregon State backup-turned-starter made it look easy in the Beavers' 42-24 win over BYU, passing for three touchdowns and 332 yards against a defense rated fifth in the nation.

It was the block he made on a BYU defensive lineman that paved the way for Markus Wheaton to score on a 12-yard fourth-quarter reverse that bumped No. 10 Oregon State's lead to 11 points with 5:30 remaining.

Vaz came out firing, completing his first five passes for 75 yards, capped by a 11-yard TD pass to Wheaton. He tossed a 24-yard scoring strike to Wheaton with 3:01 left in the quarter for a 14-7 Oregon State lead.

Brandin Cooks caught eight passes for 173 yards for the Beavers.

The Beavers also got some help on the ground, gaining 118 yards -double what BYU had been allowing. Storm Woods and Malcolm Agnew led the way, with Woods scoring on a 16-yard third-quarter run for a 21-14 lead.

Vaz's third TD pass was pure luck as BYU linebacker Kyle Van Noy tipped it at the line. Tight end Colby Prince grabbed it in the end zone for a touchdown while surrounded by three defenders.

It gave Oregon State a 28-21 lead with 14:48 remaining.

A 35-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen pulled BYU within 28-24 with 8:55 left.

Nelson, who had missed the previous two games with what he said were "back fractures," countered Oregon State's first score with a 10-play, 75-yard drive of his own. He showed he was healthy from the start, bootlegging left on BYU's first play from scrimmage and rumbling 16 yards.

The score was tied at 21 after Jamaal Williams' 2-yard run late in the third quarter.

Markus Wheaton (2, below) found the end zone three times to help the 10th-ranked Beavers to victory at BYU. Cody Vaz (14, right) made his first career start throwing for 332 yards and three touchdowns to earn Pac-12 Player of the Week honors.

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Oct. 20, 2012

Weather — 48 degrees; Wind: 5 mph W; Cloudy

Redshirt freshman running back Storm Woods rushed for a career-high three touchdowns and the Oregon State defense forced four crucial turnovers on the way to a 21-7 victory over Utah in OSU's Homecoming game at Reser Stadium.

The previous week against BYU, quarterback Cody Vaz came out on fire as the Beavers' offense set the tone for the game early on. Against Utah, the defense took the leading role in staking the Beavers to a 14-0 lead.

Utah quarterback Travis Wilson overthrew Devon Christopher across the middle, and the pass was intercepted by Michael Doctor at the Utah 35-yard line and returned 19 yards with 2:02 left in the first quarter. It was Doctor's third career interception. Vaz hit tight end Connor Hamlett for 12 yards to the Utah 4 and Woods went off right tackle two plays later from a yard out to open the scoring.

On Utah's ensuing possession, Wilson was hit by Rudolf Fifita as he rolled left, jarring the ball loose. Dylan Wynn jumped on the fumble at the Utah 10-yard line, and two plays later, Woods plunged in from two yards out to make it 14-0 with 14:27 remaining in the half. Though the Beavers were outgained 175-98 in the first half, they benefited from the takeaways as their two scoring drives combined to cover just 26 yards.

Utah responded two drives later with a 10-play, 88-yard drive capped by an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Jake Murphy to make it 14-7 with 6:00 to play in the second quarter. The score snapped the Beavers' streak of not allowing a touchdown at home at 85 minutes and 31 seconds.

Utah did have an opportunity to jump ahead first. Wilson hit a 35-yard pass to Luke Matthews on the Utes' first play from scrimmage, but Coleman Peter-son missed a 43-yard field goal after the drive stalled in OSU territory.

Storm Woods (24, below) scored all three of the Beavers' touchdowns en route to OSU moving to 6-0 for the first time in program history. Michael Doctor (40, right) recorded 10 tackles and an interception as the Beavers forced four turnovers against the Utes.

CenturyLink Field
Seattle, Wash. • Oct. 27, 2012

Weather — 51 degrees; Wind: Light, Light Rain

Brandin Cooks caught nine passes, including a 54-yard touchdown scamper, in Oregon State's 20-17 loss at Washington. It was the first loss of the season for the seventh-ranked Beavers.

Sophomore quarterback Sean Mannion, returning from a two-game absence due to knee surgery, threw for 221 yards but was intercepted four times.

Mannion led the Beavers back from a 10-point halftime deficit, the most OSU has trailed all season, to tie the score during a dominant third quarter comeback. The Beavers outgained the Huskies 195-69 behind Cooks' 54-yard jaunt and a 29-yard Trevor Romaine field goal.

Despite losing the turnover battle for only the second time this season, the Beavers held close throughout the game.

Washington's Marcus Peters intercepted Mannion's final pass of the night setting up the Huskies at the OSU 30 yard line. Two plays later Bishop Sankey plunged into the end zone to put the Huskies up 17-10 with 8:19 left in the game.

Oregon State responded immediately with junior Cody Vaz at the helm. Vaz completed five out of six passes during the drive including a 29-yard strike to Connor Hamlett for the tying touchdown with 4:58 remaining.

However, the Huskies drove down the field eating up valuable time along the way. Travis Coons knocked a field goal through from 30 yards with 1:20 left.

OSU's ensuing drive stalled out near midfield to effectively end the game.

Oregon State star receiver Markus Wheaton was knocked out of the game early in the second quarter and finished the game with two catches for 25 yards.

Storm Woods rushed for 90 yards and Castro Masaniai registered 1.5 sacks for Oregon State.

Connor Hamlett (89, below) scored late in the game to tie the score at 17-17 with less than five minutes remaining. Brandin Cooks (7, right) turned the corner on this pass and raced 54-yards to put the Beavers on the board in the third quarter.

GAME EIGHT — #13 OREGON STATE VS. ARIZONA STATE

OREGON STATE
ARIZONA STATE

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Nov. 3, 2012

Weather — 59 degrees; Wind 3 mph SE, Cloudy

The No. 13 Oregon State football team weathered a fast start by Arizona State and used a peak performance from its offense to move to 7-1 on the season with a defeat of the Sun Devils, 36-26 at Reser Stadium.

The Sun Devils scored 16 points in the first quarter and opened the scoring just 21 seconds into action. Junior Onyeali recovered Cody Vaz's fumble at the 1-yard line and rolled into the end zone to make it 7-0. After a Trevor Romaine 41-yard field goal on the Beavers ensuing possession that was set up by a 35-yard run by Markus Wheaton, ASU opened an 11-point lead on Cameron Marshall's 1-yard plunge. It would be the last Devil trip to the end zone until late in the fourth.

The Beavers began their comeback with Wheaton's 50-yard touchdown reception on a crossing route as he raced untouched to the goal line. Arizona State answered by blocking a punt out of the back of the end zone for a safety and adding a 31-yard field goal to make it 19-10 with 12:56 to play in the second quarter.

OSU rattled off the next 26 points. Terron Ward went 53 yards for a touchdown on the Beavers' next possession.

Wheaton caught his second touchdown pass of the game on OSU's first possession of the second half. This one came from 13 yards out to cap a 52-yard drive that took just five plays. Wheaton finished with four catches and 108 yards and the two scores. He also rushed for 57 yards on three carries.

Romaine pushed the lead to two scores with his third field goal of the night, this one coming from 33 yards away. Vaz dropped the hammer on the Devils with his third touchdown pass of the night. He found Brandin Cooks all alone down the left side for an easy 49-yard pitch and catch behind a broken Arizona State defense.

Terron Ward (28, below) bowled through the defense for 146 yards, including this 53-yard touchdown run against the Sun Devils. Cody Vaz (7, right) threw for 267 yards and three touchdowns including 50- and 49-yard scores.

GAME NINE — #13 OREGON STATE AT #16 STANFORD

STANFORD
OREGON STATE

Stanford Stadium
Stanford, Calif. • Nov. 10, 2012

Weather — 56 degrees; Wind 13 mph W, Partly Sunny

No. 13 Oregon State forced four turnovers and Storm Woods rushed for 94 yards against the NCAA's top-ranked run defense, but the Beavers lost at No. 16 Stanford, 27-23.

After falling behind 14-0, Oregon State scored on five of its next six possessions to take a 23-14 lead late in the third quarter. The Beavers started on that comeback trail with a solid ground attack that led to Terron Ward's 7-yard touchdown run over right guard. The Beavers gained 41 yards on the ground on that drive against a Cardinal rush defense that came in allowing just 55.6 yards per game. It was also the first rushing touchdown allowed by Stanford since Oct. 6 against Arizona, a span of 17 quarters. Woods rushed for 34 yards on the drive.

The Beavers moved in front on the opening drive of the second half. Facing a third-and-16 from the Stanford 22, Cody Vaz found Markus Wheaton wide open over the middle and he raced in to make it 17-14. Trevor Romaine added two more field goals in the third quarter to push the lead to 23-14. Ryan Murphy intercepted Kevin Hogan at the Stanford 30 to set up a 42-yarder, and Romaine hit a 44-yard field goal on the next Beavers' possession.

Stanford running back Stepfan Taylor brought the Cardinal back to within one score with a 40-yard touchdown reception on the final play of the third quarter to make it 23-21.

With the momentum appearing to shift towards Stanford after the Beavers were forced to punt, Rashaad Reynolds intercepted Hogan on a deep pass down the left side to stop the Cardinal. Stanford forced a turnover of its own, however, as Vaz fumbled on a scramble. That ensuing drive culminated in a 14-yard touchdown strike from Hogan to Zach Ertz with 5:07 remaining.

Michael Doctor (40, below) registered five tackles and a fumble recovery against the Cardinal and Storm Woods (24, right) rushed for 94 yards in the loss.

GAME TEN — #15 OREGON STATE VS. CALIFORNIA

OREGON STATE
CALIFORNIA

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Nov. 17, 2012

Weather — 43 degrees; Wind 13 mph SE, Heavy Rain

Sean Mannion passed for four touchdowns and Oregon State nearly set a school record for most points in a league game as the No. 15 Beavers rolled past the Golden Bears, 62-14.

Mannion completed 24-of-34 passes for 325 yards in his first start since October 27 against Washington. In the process, the sophomore became the sixth Oregon State quarterback to surpass 5,000 yards for a career; he has 5,232 in less than two full seasons.

The 62 points scored is the second-most in school history against a league opponent; the record is 66 against Washington State in 2008. The Beavers have hit the 60-point mark 18 times since the program began playing football in 1893.

The win was Oregon State's 11th in the Beavers' last 14 tries against the Golden Bears and the 62 points surpassed the previous best of 42 in a 48-42 overtime loss in Berkeley in 1996.

Defensively, the Beavers dominated California, posting four turnovers in addition to the 322 yards of total offense allowed. California quarterback Allan Bridgford passed for just 132 yards and was intercepted one time.

Mannion found seven different receivers on the night, led by Markus Wheaton, who finished with 99 yards on seven catches. He's now just 14 yards shy of 1,000 on the year and the senior has 205 receptions in his career - fourth in school history, eight shy of tying James Newson (2000-03) for third.

Connor Hamlett picked up 80 yards and a touchdown on six receptions, setting career highs in both categories. His third touchdown of the season put the Beavers up 28-7 in the second quarter.

Terron Ward led the Beavers on the ground, finishing with 128 yards on 14 carries - a 9.1 average - while scoring two touchdowns. The Beavers finished the game with 200 yards rushing.

Sean Mannion (4, below) threw for 325 yards and four touchdowns in a blowout of the Bears. Jordan Poyer (14, right) made his sixth interception of the season in the win.

Corvallis, Ore. • Nov. 24, 2012

Weather — 52 degrees; Wind 6 mph NW, Cloudy

The No. 16 Oregon State Beavers and the No. 5 Oregon Ducks renewed their rivalry the 116th Civil War, presented by PacificSource Health Plans, the NW Ford Dealers, McDonald's and Wells Fargo. In front of a school-record crowd of 47,249, the Ducks prevailed, 48-24, in only the fourth Civil War to feature both teams in the national rankings.

Oregon State quarterback Sean Mannion engineered three scoring drives with key plays against the fourth-best pass defense in the Pac-12. He led the Beavers to a 7-6 lead late in the first quarter. After a completion to Markus Wheaton for 15 yards, Mannion hit Brandin Cooks down the right seam for 40 yards to the Oregon 15. Two plays later, Storm Woods went off right tackle for a 7-yard score to cap the four-play, 55-yard drive to give the Beavers a one-point lead.

Kenjon Barner made it 20-7 with a 1-yard touchdown run, but the Beavers cut into the deficit with a 36-yard field goal on the final play of the first half. After a penalty forced the Beavers into a fourth-and-eight play, Mannion found Connor Hamlett for 14 yards to put the Beavers into field goal range. Mannion then hit Woods and Wheaton to set up Trevor Romaine's successful try as the seconds ticked

Senior wide receiver Markus Wheaton became the school's all-time receptions leader in the second quarter of No. 15 Oregon State's 77-3 victory over Nicholls State at Reser Stadium. The 77 points are the most ever in Oregon State's football history.

Wheaton's record-breaking catch, the 223rd of his career, came late in the second quarter on his 11th reception of the afternoon. After tossing the record-setting ball to the Beavers' sideline, Wheaton lined up wide right and was on the receiving end of a 2-yard pass from Cody Vaz to make it 35-0 OSU. That was his final catch of the day as he finished with 12 receptions for 123 yards and a touchdown.

The Beavers built their lead early with a solid rushing attack and an efficient short passing game with Sean Mannion pulling the strings. Storm Woods started for the Beavers and rushed for 54 yards on 12 carries and put the Beavers ahead early with an 8-yard touchdown run just over five minutes into action. Mannion went 6-for-6 on the drive for 52 yards. Woods scored again on a 1-yard touchdown run on a fourth-and-goal play on Oregon State's second possession to make it 14-0 with 55 seconds to play in the first quarter.

Wheaton took a handoff and went around the right side to make it 21-0 with a 10-yard end-around run with 11:09 remaining in the second. That drive ended Mannion's first half action with him completing 15-of-16 passes for 174 yards.

Vaz's first drive went 62 yards on six plays, culminating in Terron Ward's 15-yard touchdown carry to stake the Beavers to a 28-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ward finished with 64 yards.

Vaz found Wheaton on the next drive for the 2-yard score to take the Beavers into the half with a 35-0 lead. Vaz and Mannion combined to go 23-for-25 for 255 yards in the first half.

The Oregon State offense rolled to 683 yards and scored on all 11 possessions and Markus Wheaton (2, right) made 12 catches - all in the first quarter - to set the school's career receptions record with 223.

San Antonio, Texas • Dec. 29, 2012

Weather — Indoors

(AP) - David Ash threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, the last a 36-yard strike to Marquise Goodwin with 2:24 left, to give Texas a 31-27 comeback victory over No. 15 Oregon State in the Alamo Bowl.

The Longhorns (9-4) never led before Goodwin scored his second touchdown on a deep post pattern, just a down after Texas converted a fourth-and-1 play to keep its chances alive.

Storm Woods ran for 118 yards and scored two touchdowns for Oregon State (9-4).

Ash was 21 of 33 for 241 yards. Ash sputtered until the fourth quarter, when he went 9 for 11 for 146 yards. Texas had no choice but to stick with the only backups two redshirt freshmen who haven't taken a snap all season.

Oregon State quarterback Cody Vaz was 15 of 28 for 194 yards. The Beavers had negative 4 yards in the fourth quarter as they were muffed by the Longhorns defense that was led by Alex Okafor, who finished with 4 1/2 sacks.

The Valero Alamo Bowl marked the Beavers' 16th bowl game and OSU is 10-6 all-time in them - 5-2 under head coach Mike Riley. The dean of Pac-12 Conference coaches engineered one of the top turnarounds in the nation in 2012, with the Beavers improving to a 9-4 mark after finishing the 2011 campaign at 3-9.

The six-win improvement tied Ohio State and Middle Tennessee for the best win improvements from last season.

Markus Wheaton ended his Oregon State career at the Alamo Bowl, catching three passes for 37 yards - he left as the program's all-time receptions leader with 227 and is sixth with 1,244 yards.

Another senior playing in his final game for the Beavers, Jordan Poyer, was tied for third on the team with five tackles, including a sack.

Linebacker Michael Doctor was the team leader with 11 tackles.

Oregon State found itself up 20-10 at halftime and 27-17 entering the fourth quarter but two late Texas touchdowns sealed the come-from-behind win for the Longhorns. Ash found Johnathan Gray from 15 yards out with 8:18 remaining and followed that up with a 36-yard touchdown pass to Marquise Goodwin with just 2:24 left in the game.
