The Beavers return three senior starting specialists in 2014. Trevor Romaine (12) is back as a fourth-year starter and is one of the most prolific kickers in OSU history ranking among the top three all-time in nearly every kicking category. Keith Kostol, a third-year starter, returns as the incumbent at punter. Kostol has been a picture of consistency in his first two years as the primary punter and will finish his career in the Orange & Black as one of the program's finest at the position. Michael Morovick returns from a season-ending knee injury to lend stability as a third-year starter, while Andrew Maughan is also back in the fold after gaining experience while Morovick was out, during the second half of the 2013 season.
